Re:VISION premieres

A number of artists and art enthusiasts have joined together to form a new group, Re:VISION and its goal is to revitalize the visual arts in our community. The premier show opens Wed., June 17 at 8 p.m. at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre. The evening will include art works, live music, a cash wine bar, a painting in progress and a chance to win an original piece of art. Participants include potters, photographers, painters and a fibre artist. To help fund this and future events, a raffle is being held for five works of art. Tickets are available at Clay Concepts, the Frame Maker, Halton Camera Exchange and Oxbow Books.

The Halton Hills School of Dancing held its annual recital last Saturday with its students dancing the afternoon away in varied styles. Left, students perform Ballet Blanc and below is a "Happy Tapper."
