

Top teams flex their muscles in Georgetown flag football

Maybe it was the lingering effects of Big Chill, whatever the cause, it seemed as if only three teams showed up to play football last Sunday. All three games this past week produced lopsided scores and a clearer indication of just who the teams to beat will be. Of course, being the weekend the rainy, monsoon-type weather continues to hamper the playing conditions and morale of all the athletes.

Dawgs vs Oldtimers

The week's first blow out saw the Dawgs bear their teeth in a convincing manner as they ravaged the Oldtimers 43-14. The Dawgs looked like a hungry pack as they set upon the old fellas from the opening kick off. Leading the canine crew were big receiver Dave Clements who hauled in two majors and slick running QB John Egan who rambled across the goal line for two touchdowns himself. In addition, Frank Bruno hauled in a TD and Linus Stasiulis rounded out a diverse potent Dawg attack. Bruno added five points off of converts and Pat McKinnon caught a two pointer to get on the scoresheet.

For the Oldtimers, veteran Kevin Brown did all the damage as he managed to elude a tenacious Dawg defence for two majors and a two point convert. Interceptions were recorded by Dawgs Patrick Litowski and Clements. The Dawgs victory came on the heels of a tough defeat at the hands of Meznic Electric. Little John Egan proved once again that so goes Johnny, so goes the Dawgs. Egan adds an extra dimension to the Dawgs attack with his brilliant running and elusiveness.

Meznic vs New Kids

The second game of the day featured the Gary Lockwood show as "Garth" recorded four majors and picked off two New Kids throws on the way to a 45-0 whitewashing. It certainly looked as if the New Kids were an expansion club as they had difficulty adjusting to the Meznic formations. Backing up for the Lockwood extravaganza were Howie Hulme and Rob Spiteri who added one touchdown each. Spiteri added a two pointer as did Randy and Ron Lunn respectively. Bob Lockwood booted a convert as Meznic pumped up their record to 3-0. As for the New Kids - things can only improve as they continue their baptism by fire into the league.

Horns vs M and M

The final game of the afternoon followed the pattern of the first two as the Horns gouged the short handed M and M Sportsmen 42-7. Lightfooted "Turk" Lindsay led the Longhorn attack with one touchdown and three interceptions to set the table for QB Gary Hubert and his fellow Horns. The scoring attack was well spread out as Mark Hamilton (with two), Bob Davey, traitor Rob Rivers, Murt Allison and Bruce Mitchell crossed into pay dirt. "Sweet" Paterson continued to do what he does best by booting converts on all seven TDs. The lone M and M major came off a nice pass and grab to "light-fingered" Gord McNeilly. If the Sportsmen planned to use this game as an indication of their potential, perhaps they need to re-evaluate the direction their club is headed as they proved no match for the Horns.

Teams spilt

Acton's Nellis Construction Tyke B softball squad nipped Glen Williams 20-5 in Halton Rural action last week.

The Acton Big Scoop Atoms girls weren't as fortunate as they lost 6-1 to the Glen. Amanda Livermore drove in the lone Acton run.

Top athletes

GDHS Athletes of the Week include male athlete Jamie Rutherford, who played a great game as pitcher against M.M. Robinson in the Halton Semi-final Baseball series. Although GDHS lost to Robinson, Jamie led the team in a 9-8 win over White Oaks the week before to advance to the semi-final action. Female athlete Sharon Stigger was also chosen for her outstanding performance at third base in the Halton Championship series. Sharon's grand slam against E.C. Drury turned the game around, bringing home the honors for Georgetown.
