Police Blotter

Water balloons
Two cars were damaged when they were bombarded by water balloons at Georgetown High School June 10. Police were told the balloons were thrown all day on the last day of school by a group of 25 to 35 students. The windshield frame and door of a Ford Tempo were damaged. The windshield of a Pontiac Firebird was also smashed by the balloons. Students were reluctant to identify those who were throwing the balloons, but police did get some names.

Tires slashed
A truck parked in a driveway on John St. in Georgetown had two tires slashed sometime on recently. The damage is estimated to be $800, and the truck owner had a similar occurrence a week earlier.

Laundry machine
About $300 damage was done to a washing machine at a laundromat in Acton. Someone entered the laundromat, forced open the coin box and took an unknown amount of money, police said.

Lawn chairs stolen
Three lawn chairs were found on the front lawn of a Church St. residence in Acton recently. A neighbor said she saw two men dropping the chairs off early Sunday morning, according to police. Two of the chairs came from the side of another home on the street, and they were returned, police said.

School break-in
A glass door was found smashed at George Kennedy School early June 11, allowing someone to enter the school, police said. They responded to an alarm at the school Thursday morning. A dog was sent in, but no one was found. On Monday (June 8) the screens on a window were damaged at the same school, police said.

Impaired driver
A Georgetown resident severely damaged his car as well as damaging another. The man was driving his 1985 Pontiac east on Dayfoot Dr. in Georgetown, police said. He ran into the rear of a 1976 Van parked on the street and left the scene. He later returned, and police charged him with impaired driving, driving with over 80 mg of alcohol in his blood and failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

Car rolled
A 1990 Chevrolet driven by a man from Adamsville, Quebec went out of control and rolled over twice before coming to a stop in a ditch on 15 Sideroad recently. The driver was charged with careless driving. He and a passenger were treated for minimal injuries and then released from Georgetown Memorial Hospital, police said.

Garden tractor stolen
A John Deere garden tractor was stolen sometime overnight Thursday, June 11 from Winston Churchill Blvd. It was parked in a farm equipment shelter behind a home. It had a yellow grass cutter attached and is in good condition, estimated to be worth $4,000.

Ownership missing
Someone broke into a glove compartment of a Mazda parked on Rexway Dr. in Georgetown overnight Saturday, June 13, police said. The lock on the glove compartment was smashed, but only the insurance and ownership was stolen.

Break and enter
Someone broke into a Mountainview Rd. residence during the day on Thursday, June 11 and broke a bubble gum machine, but stole nothing. The house was entered through an unlocked garage door, and the bedrooms appear to have been searched, police said.
