THE BAHAI FAITH FROM A-Z

F

FAITH

Faith has been described as a fewness of words and an abundance of deeds. But moreover it is the satisfaction of both mind and heart in one's deepest beliefs about life.

Sponsored by the Baha'is of Halton Hills, 878-6138

Spring social

The Spring Social of the Daughters of Knox was held in May instead of June as is usual, so that the members could attend the Georgetown Globe Productions' presentation of South Pacific at the John Elliott Theatre on May 7.

Afterwards, the group of 25 women, including some guests, went to Tim Horton's for refreshments.

The June meeting was held on the 2nd. President Anne Moore opened the meeting with the reading of a poem entitled Springtime Prayer. Various items of business were discussed, and thank you notes for donations were read. Joyce Sprowl announced that arrangements have been made for selling tickets for the quilt and porcelain doll at Stone Rd. Mall, Guelph, Milton Mall, Eaton Centre, Guelph, Leathertown, Acton and at the Acton Fall Fair.

It was decided to have the worn chairs in the Mary Ellen Anderson Room reupholstered.

The Daughters of Knox will again provide the coleslaw for the church barbecue, to be held on June 28. Renee Watson and Eunice Gibson agreed to work together on this.

Renee and her group then conducted the worship portion of the meeting. The opening hymn Reach Out and Touch was sung. Vivian Swallow read the Scripture passages from Mark 2:1-12. Renee Watson gave the meditation, from a reading entitled True Friends. The offertory prayer was also given by Renee.
