Enjoy 'summer nights' at Globe's Grease

Poodle skirts, rolled up jeans and saddle shoes will be all the rage in Georgetown this summer when Georgetown Globe Productions presents Grease at John Elliott Theatre August 5-8.

Grease is an energetic musical set in the fun-loving 50's. The show centres around the kids of Rydell High and features a great assortment of colourful characters including the Burger Palace Boys - Danny, Kenicki, Doody, Roger and Sonny; and the Pink Ladies - Rizzo, Frenchy, Marty and Jan.

The action begins when Sandy, a sweet, innocent, and naive new girl in town has a summer romance with Danny. Their relationship ends when school starts and they go their separate ways, however Sandy's plans suddenly change when she finds herself at Rydell High. During the musical number, Summer Nights, Sandy and Danny give their own versions of their romance and it becomes quite clear that Sandy has no idea who Danny really is.

The Pink Ladies, namely Rizzo, take great delight in pointing out that her "dreamboat" is none other than the "too cool" leader of the Burger Palace Boys. When he sees Sandy at school, Danny must maintain his cool and distant attitude to impress the guys, especially when they start doubting his story about their "hot" summer romance.

Tickets for Grease are only $12 and can be purchased from Royal LePage on Guelph Street in Georgetown. Show times are 8 p.m. Wednesday August 5 to Friday August 7 and 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Saturday August 8. For information call 873-6016.
