

Sunny Acre Farms, located on Winston Churchill Boulevard in Norval two kilometres south of Highway 7, is offering pick-your-own strawberries for the first time this summer. Owners David, Walter and Gary Bianchi look forward to cultivating more delicious strawberries. Bring or buy your containers.

Strawberry farm ripe for picking

The picking is ripe at Sunny Acre Farms. For strawberries, that is.

This is the first year that Sunny Acre Farms, located on Winston Churchill Blvd. in Norval two kilometres south of Highway 7, has offered pick-your-own strawberries.

Owner Walter Bianchi and his sons and co-owners Gary and David, are excited about the strawberry season.

"Everybody kept asking me, 'Why don't you have pick-your-own strawberries?'" said Bianchi, who has sponsored midget hockey in Georgetown for 25 years.

Finally Bianchi has complied, cutting down some unprofitable apple trees in his orchard and allowing strawberries to flourish. The results are delicious.

Don't forget your container if you do want to do the picking, although containers can be purchased. The Bianchis have ready-picked berries available as well.

Sunny Acre Farms is open for pick-your-own strawberries from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. seven days a week, weather permitting. For a strawberry report, call 451-3760.

Grow a row for food banks

Does your garden usually produce more vegetables than you know what to do with? If you're like most folks the answer is yes and perhaps you might be interested in a concept known as "grow a row."

The idea is straight forward. If you have surplus fresh produce you make it available to a food bank for distribution to those in need. You might even plan to have extra by growing a row specifically for this purpose.

If you are interested, the Fergus Food Pantry would like to hear from you. Contact Jan Hayward at 787-1401, between 1 and 3 p.m., or at other times you can leave a message.
