

Oreo the cat needs a loving home. Oreo (approx. a year old) and her five newborn kittens were anonymously dropped off at the Georgetown Animal Clinic in April. The kittens all found homes, and now Oreo would like one too. Oreo is an affectionate, healthy cat who has been spayed, dewormed and vaccinated. If you feel that you could provide a good home for Oreo; call the Georgetown Animal Clinic at 877-2258 to meet her.

Kid safety brochures available

In view of recent abductions in a variety of locations across Canada, and since children are away from school during the summer months, Stay Alert... Stay Safe (SASS) remind parents of the availability of an educational program for children 7-10 years of age.

Individual brochures can be obtained by contacting Stay Alert... Stay Safe at 2180 Yonge St., 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M4P 2V8 or phone (416) 480-8225.

Free instructional guide books and videos for teachers, police officers and community leaders are also available.

Parent Kits are also available for a cost of $10 plus GST. Each kit contains four comic style brochures, a video, information centre and parent guide (cheques should be made payable to Stay Alert... Stay Safe).

Parents are urged to encourage their local schools and police forces to implement the Stay Alert... Stay Safe educational program in their communities.

SASS is a national, non-profit child safety organization whose mandate is to provide education and awareness on the issue of streetproofing.

SASS is supported financially through a generous donation by Canadian Tire Corporation and its associate dealers across Canada.

John and Dianne Godley are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Laurie Geneau to Brian Franks, son of Jim and Mary Franks. Engagement party to take place this weekend.
