

Michael Ryall, 44, of Acton received minor injuries in a two-vehicle accident which occurred at the intersection of Hwy. 7 and Trafalgar Rd. 10:30 a.m. Thursday morning. Investigating officer, OPP Cst. Carmen Spizziri says the collision occurred when a 1992 Plymouth driven by a 61-year old Downsview man made a left-hand turn onto Hwy. 7. Cst. Spizziri says the man didn't see Ryall's 1981 Mazda truck travelling eastbound on the highway, and the two vehicles collided. Ryall's truck rolled, and Halton Hills firefighters had to remove the truck's roof to free him. He was taken to Georgetown Hospital and kept overnight. Police say Ryall's truck was a write-off, and the Plymouth sustained about $3,500 in damages. Cst. Spizziri says the Downsview man, who wasn't injured, has been charged with failing to yield for a stop sign.
