

Stephanie Cook of the Acton Summer Camp is this week's recipient of the Halton Hills Recreation Department Customer Service Award. Stephanie has worked for the Rec Department over the past four summers, and was joined by her little friends Nicky Newby, Carley Stein and Brett Manes as she accepted her tickets for two to Canada's Wonderland, compliments of the Independent/Free Press.

Decision disappoints EAGLE

suggested the MOE prevent the quarry from expansion because portions of the southerly property are environmentally sensitive.

EAGLE's Pat Woode said she was "disappointed" with Grier's decision, but admitted she "wasn't surprised." EAGLE is also arguing UAL's licence, which was renewed in 1990, is not legal because quarrying was allowed to expand from 150 acres to its present-day 575 acres without "proper public hearings."

"We've always asked how UAL got its licence in the first place," Woode said. "We're still of the opinion that the operations have not gone through the proper channels."

Halton Region's solicitor Mark Meneray said Friday he is also questioning the legality of UAL's licence, and expects a confidential report to council in late fall.

EAGLE is waiting for the Niagara Escarpment Commission to process an amendment that would redesignate portions of UAL's southerly lands from extraction to natural and protection. NEC senior planner Marion Plaunt said a report is expected within the next four to six months.

THE PLACE TO SHOP IN GEORGETOWN!

HALTON HILLS SHOPPING PLAZA

In an economic market we are presently experiencing - hammered by the recession with spiralling inflation, record high unemployment and bankruptcy after bankruptcy - who else would be opening retail stores at a record rate.

BiWay Stores.

And now there's one about to open in Georgetown. On Monday, August 10, 1992, BiWay Stores Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Dylex Limited, opens one of twenty-five stores this year in their quest to push to the forefront of the retail discount industry.

That's right, DISCOUNT, with a capital D-I-S-C-O-U-N-T!

The formula that began in the early 1960's is still valid claims Eric Paul, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, "... narrow margins, low prices and high turnover combined with convenience." With a focus on "core consumables" - necessities and frequently used name brand goods such as key packaged food items, health and beauty products, housewares and basic family apparel. BiWay also sells toys, stationary, a full-line bed, bath and linen department and the key seasonal items for the selling period. Add one more dimension to the merchandise mix, the SUPER BUY - the new deals that arrive weekly that are so incredibly priced compared to the market because Buyers are required to pass all savings on to the customer.

Pricing for the customer is guaranteed to be the lowest price in the market and shopping is made easier with shopping carts, a no-hassle return policy, acceptance of major credit cards, and the friendliest staff in town.

The store is updated in design reflecting a more convenient environment to maximize customer friendliness and minimize inconvenience. Fresh decor, clean and tidy, logically laid out rows and aisles, BiWay is as their mission states, "The easiest place to get great deals on quality products that meets practical everyday needs."

BiWay is a recession marketer. Flyers several times per month, aggressive advertising and innovative promotions, new stores in new formats - all with one goal - to deliver the very best savings to its customers in a time when they really need it, now and in the future.

Check it out. BiWay Stores. Now in Georgetown.

MANIFESTATION

Manifestation is the manner in which God interacts with human affairs, a word to describe the Founders of the world's religions. Each is like a mirror that perfectly reflects the light and heat of the sun, but is not itself the sun.
