

Cop charged with fraud

As a result of a charge of fraud under $1,000 being laid against Cst. Kent Wagner of the Halton Regional Police Service on July 15, 1992, an internal investigation was conducted by the service's Professional Standards Bureau.

Cst. Wagner is to appear before Superintendent Richard Kivell on August 20 to answer an allegation of discreditable conduct under the provisions of the Police Services Act.

The allegation pertains to two cheques issued to Cst. Wagner for working a paid duty in Oakville in June.

Cst. Wagner is to appear in provincial court in Oakville on August 18 on the fraud under $1,000 charge.

Stormy weather topples trees

Left: little Lindsay Cregan, 4, stands beside her fallen maple tree on River Dr., Georgetown. The tree, estimated at over 100 years old, toppled during Monday night's storm onto the neighbor's (and babysitter's!) roof.

Top: Shelley Penn of 59 John St., Georgetown reported her 50 year old Dutch Elm tree had blown down in her backyard as a result of the severe winds. There was no damage to the house, but a dividing fence was pushed out by the fall. Other trees were reported downed throughout Halton Hills.
