A little too dry, eh?

Halton Hills Fire Department was called to a home on the Fourth Line in Acton August 13 for a reported dryer fire. The fire was contained in the dryer, clothes and pillows in it had ignited. Damage to the dryer is set at $600. A malfunction in the dryer is considered the cause.

Disturbing church service

A 48-year-old Riverview Cr. Georgetown woman has been charged with disturbing a religious worship after she attended a Maple Ave., Georgetown church Wednesday evening. Police say the woman was asked to leave the church because she was disrupting a service there and attempting to block the church's entrance. She is to appear in Milton court on Monday Sept. 14.

Charged with assault

A 36-year-old Toronto man has been charged with assault level one in connection with an incident that occurred outside of a Main St. Georgetown hotel early Friday morning. Police say the man attended the hotel with a 31-year-old Toronto woman for a few drinks. They began to argue, then went outside where the man swung her around, grabbed her neck and caused her to fall. The man is to appear in Milton court on Monday Sept. 14.

Rural break-in

Police are investigating a break and enter at a house on Hwy. 7 in Halton Hills that occurred sometime overnight

Police
Blotter

Sunday and Monday. Police report entrance was gained into the house, which was unoccupied at the time, through a bathroom window. About $730 worth of merchandise was stolen from the home including a leather jacket, car stereo and some food items.

Vacant house entered

Three Acton male youths have been charged with enter premises when entry prohibited after police say they were discovered in a vacant Young St., Acton house that had been boarded up because it had been gutted by fire. The youths were discovered by the house's owner.

Mall worker injured

A 40-year-old Acton man, working on the construction of Georgetown Marketplace, was injured Monday morning when a piece of the 6' by 10' pane of glass he was carrying with another worker slipped and cut his hand and arm. The injuries weren't serious.
