Original works

Halton Hills artist Mark Kalous opened his art exhibit and sale at the Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, Wednesday night. The show features 72 pieces, with 62 originals and 10 prints. Utilizing both oil and acrylic, the work is from 1988 through to 1991, and features nature, scenics and some Mennonite paintings. Kalous has lived at his 25 Sideroad home, south of Acton since 1967, and has been painting full time since 1980.

Sheridan singles out the singles

Singles looking for ways to meet other singles for entertainment, dining, and outings, will be interested in Sheridan College's "Something for Singles" series at the Brampton, Burlington, Credit Valley and Oakville campuses starting September 24.

This series includes activities offered on alternate Friday or Saturday evenings, preceded by planning sessions to acquaint participants and to select activities. A variety of entertainment such as comedy cabarets, murder mystery dinners, bowling, hiking, dancing, dining out, theatre, sunset boat cruises, countryside day trips, winery tours and more, assures people a good time with new friends. The Something for Singles programs will be held on alternate weekends. Planning sessions are to be held at 7 p.m. at the Burlington campus on Thursday, September 24 and on Friday, September 25 at the Brampton, Credit Valley and Oakville campuses. The Forty Plus program planning session will be held at the Oakville campus on Friday, September 25 at 7 p.m.

Advance registration ($45 fee) is recommended. For details and a registration form, see your Sheridan College Continuing Education Fall 1992 Calendar, or call 456-1191 (Brampton) and 842-8800 (Oakville).

Submit essays, poems for patriotic publication

The Kim Group of Companies has launched a major publishing project entitled In Praise Of Canada. It is designed to instill in Canadians a sense of patriotism and pride, and presents an opportunity for reflection on what is good and enduring about our great country.

The publication, due to be released in January 1993, will feature ordinary Canadians and school children capturing this in poetry, short essays, art and photography. It will also feature a list of truly Canadian companies along with a brief profile on those selected. Thousands of schools across the country have been officially contacted, and submissions are coming in from all the provinces.

The Canadian public and those school children who've not yet made submissions are urged to do so now. These are the requirements: 1. All age groups qualify. 2. Poetry must be four stanzas only. Each stanza must be no more than six lines. 3. Art work must be 6.5 x 5.0". 4. Essay must be no more than 150 words. 5. Photography: Historical landmarks, magnificent landscapes or scenes uniquely Canadian. 6. A passport size picture.

The deadline for entries is August 31. Entries should be addressed to The Kim Group Of Companies, 116 Manville Road, Suite 203, Scarborough, Ontario, M1L 4J5, telephone (416) 750-4453, fax (416) 750-4454.
