Trailer taken

Police are investigating the theft of a trailer and its load from a Frederick St., Acton industrial complex that occurred sometime overnight Monday and Tuesday. Police say the 24 foot-long trailer was chained to a tree at the location. In the trailer were three lathes used for grinding. Police say the culprit(s) cut the chain and hooked the trailer up to a tractor and drove away. The trailer and stolen property are valued at $60,000.

Man charged

A 23-year-old man who lives on the Eighth Line, Halton Hills, has been charged with possession of stolen property after police searched his home. Police discovered a Suzuki motorcycle, valued at $4,000, that was reported stolen from Guelph. The man is to appear in Milton court on Monday, Sept. 28.

Police Blotter

Vandals hit again

Police are investigating a vandalism incident that occurred at a Maple Ave., Georgetown golf club early Wednesday morning. Police say early that morning someone threw something through the glass door at the club's pro shop. Damage is set at $400, no entry was gained.

Radiator stolen

Police are investigating the theft of a radiator valued at $75 from the rear of a service centre located on Mountainview Rd. in Georgetown Monday evening. Police say the garage attendant spotted a suspicious vehicle in the area at the time. Police say the vehicle, a 1978-1983 medium blue van, with foil on the driver side window, was driven by a black male.

Counterfeit money

Police are investigating a fraud which occurred at a Guelph St. submarine shop Tuesday night at 10:45 p.m. Police say two women, dressed in long strapless dresses, entered the shop and ordered a small quantity of food. They paid for the items with a $100 US bill. Police say when the store's bank deposit was made the next day, the bank determined the $100 bill was counterfeit. One of the suspects is described as white, 30 to 32 years old, thin, 168 cm tall, with blond wavy hair and a very fair complexion. The other suspect is described as non-white, medium build, with black hair.

Community action aids police
