Musicfest success

By JOANNE BROWN
Special to the Independent/Free Press

Thirty-three students from the Ontario Conservatory of Music in Georgetown recently competed at Musicfest Canada with excellent results.

Musicfest Canada is a province-wide festival held every July at Bingeman Park in Kitchener. Students from all over Ontario meet for fun and competition each year. Musicfest has something for every type of student and follows the Ontario Conservatory of Music's philosophy that music lessons should be fun as well as educational. Musicfest also offers group competitions on piano and organ where they must play 2-3 part harmonized arrangements of music. Georgetown teachers Joanne Brown, Shirley Radomsky and Cecilia Lee wish to congratulate the students for a job well done and to thank the parents for their support and encouragement this past year. The Ontario Conservatory of Music is located at 330 Guelph St., Unit 4A and is now accepting registrations on piano, organ and guitar for the fall program. To register please call Joanne Brown at 877-3369 after 4 p.m. for an appointment for a free musical evaluation.
