

Christmas Craft Fair today at Ag Museum

A spectrum of Canadian country crafts returns to the Ontario Agricultural Museum for the ninth annual Christmas Craft Fair, today, Sunday, September 20, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Over 50 exhibitors from throughout the province will offer original designs in knits, wood, jewellery, folk art, stained glass, quilts, pottery and more - all handmade by artisans.

"The Craft Fair's country Christmas theme appeals to both the urban and rural communities, making it an extremely successful event," says museum general manager, John Wiley.

Held in the museum's Gambrel Barn with its rustic allure of hand-hewn timbers, this event continues to grow in popularity. A second building is used to include additional crafts.

While enjoying this event, visitors can also view the popular Ontario Agricultural Museum Quilt Collection in its new permanent gallery at the museum.

Discover over 30 buildings and displays on the museum's 32-hectare site.

Costumed interpreters, farm animals, wagon rides and a gift shop will make your day in the country a memorable one.

Seniors show combined with '92 travel show

It's the largest show of its kind in Canada, and it's for People 50 Plus. It's "two great shows under one roof" and it's being held at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre on Sept. 29-30, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Admission is free and there is a free shuttle bus service from Union Station every 15 minutes.

This year is the first time The Great Canadian Maturity Show, co-sponsored by Today's Seniors and Shoppers Drug Mart, has been held in Toronto and it has been combined with The Great Canadian Fall '92 Travel Show. More than 400 exhibitors are participating at both shows.

Music hall music gets a starring role on the entertainment bill as Dave Hoy's Good Time Music Hall from St. Thomas (Sept. 29 only) while John Bull and The Musical Rascals offer a distinctly British-flavored vaudeville show.

The main attraction at The Great Canadian Fall '92 Travel Show is a 150-seat video theatre where exhibitors can show videos of their programs to vacation voyeurs. The SharpVision system transforms 20-inch images into crystal clear 100-inch scenes that will make the video presentations feel like almost being there.

Six major prizes, worth over $17,000, are there to be won. The $7,000 Grand Prize is a trip for two to Hong Kong which includes five nights accommodation.
