Watercolor course Tuesdays

By MARY ROWAN
CVA past president

The Credit Valley Artisans are offering a six week course in watercolor painting for beginners and intermediates on Tuesday evenings starting Sept. 29.

Georgetown resident, Gretchen Day, will be the instructor. Gretchen began teaching art in 1972 and took up painting five years later. Her watercolors have hung at Forge Gallery in Terra Cotta and The Gallery of the Cultural Centre.

She endeavors to instill the excitement of watercolors to her students. Gretchen is a past president of the Credit Valley Artisans.

This is a course for beginners and intermediates. The four basic watercolor techniques of wet on wet, graded wash, dry brush and even wash will be taught. Emphasis will be on anticipating what will happen before the brush reaches the paper. Drawing basics are helpful but not necessary.

For further information contact Karen King, registrar, at 873-2018 between 6-8 p.m.
