Marjorie Harrison of Norval has returned from a weekend trip with the Blue Jay Fan Club to Arlington, Texas. They departed from Toronto at 12:49 and arrived at 3:07 p.m. Because of rain a doubleheader was played Friday and they didn't see their bed till 3 o'clock in the morning. Again on both Saturday and Sunday the Jays were in fine form but had to leave Sunday before the game finished. They all arrived home at 10 p.m. Sunday and didn't know they were tired till they got home.

Just married

On July 11, Lisa D'Angelo, eldest daughter of Donato and Antonia D'Angelo of RR1 Inglewood, and Donald Keith Garbutt, only son of Donald and Mary Garbutt of RR2 Norval, were married at St. John the Evangelist Church, Caledon East.

Attending the bride were her cousins Laura D'Angelo, maid of honor, Sandra Valletta, and Josie Guiliani, and her sisters Dina and Tracy D'Angelo. The best man was Stewart Watson, friend of the groom, and ushers were Graham Shaw, David McBride, Andrew McBride, friends of the groom, and Michael D'Angelo, cousin of the bride. Junior attendants were Laura Beth Sterritt and Steven Squibb, cousins of the groom.

The family was especially happy to have Lisa's grandparents, Achelle and Maria Valletta, present, and glad that aunts and uncles included those from Edmonton, Alberta and from Kelowna, British Columbia.

Prior to the wedding, Graham and Carla Shaw entertained friends at an engagement party. The bride's mother gave a luncheon in Lisa's honor. Keith's aunt, Joanne
