Garden tractors stolen

During the last week of July and the first week of August, thieves stole three garden tractors in Erin, Eramosa and Puslinch townships.

In all three cases the tractors had been stored in sheds at private residences.

Stolen tractors: 1) 8HP Turfmaster, burgundy; 2) 16HP Wheelhorse, red; 3) 1982 Allis, orange.

Suspect vehicle: Red flat-bed truck.

Police Blotter

$4,000 theft

Police are investigating a break and enter which occurred at an Armstrong Ave. shop sometime overnight Tuesday and Wednesday. Police say more than $4,000 worth of welding equipment was stolen.

Police say entrance was gained into the building through a panel that was forced open on an overhead door. Missing is a Honda generator, a welder, compressor and acetylene tanks.

Public mischief

Police have charged a 57-year-old Willow St. Acton man with public mischief and care and control impaired in connection with an incident that occurred at Willow and Bower streets in Acton at about 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Police say the man's vehicle was involved in an accident at the intersection. A short time later police found the man at his residence, he told them the vehicle had been stolen. Police say an investigation revealed that the vehicle had not been stolen. He is to appear in Milton court on Monday, Nov. 9.

Main St. break-in

Police are investigating a break and enter that occurred at a Main St., Georgetown apartment overnight Monday and Tuesday. Police say sometime between 10 p.m. Monday and 2:15 a.m. Tuesday the culprit(s) entered the apartment by kicking in the door. Missing from the apartment was $120 and pay stubs.

Backhoe bucket stolen

Police are investigating the theft of an excavator bucket removed from a backhoe sometime between last Thursday and Sunday. The backhoe was parked at a construction site at Mountainview and River roads in Georgetown. Police say the bucket is valued at $3,000.

Lights stolen

Police are investigating the theft of several light fixture globes from the Glen Village Parkette at Confederation and Main streets in Glen Williams which occurred sometime overnight Saturday and Sunday.

Teepee vandalized

Police are investigating $600 worth of damage done to a canvas teepee owned by the Peel Board of Education which was situated on Winston Churchill Blvd. property. Police say sometime between Wednesday and Friday the bottom six feet of the teepee was slashed. Prior to that date, sometime between Sept. 18 and last Monday, police report that a chainsaw owned by the Peel Board of Education, valued at $840, was stolen from a shed on the same property. Police say there was no sign of forced entry.
