THE BAHAI FAITH FROM A-Z

W

WORLD

Our common homeland, that now claims our first allegiance. The times when loyalty to one's family, race, culture, or nation was deemed sufficient are past. "Glory not in this that you love your country; glory in this that you love mankind."

Halton County Plowing Match

J.D. Breckon, Peter Merry, Les MacDonald, John Brander and Ryan Marshall were local winners out of 32 entries at the Halton County Plowing Match. The match was held Saturday, Oct. 3 on the farm of Lee Wilkinson, RR5 Milton.

A perfect fall weather lent to the day and the land was excellent for plowing. Alf Brunton of Tara, Ontario was the judge. The awards dinner was held in Hillcrest Church that evening with Bill Rayner presiding. Popular country and western singer Earl Burt entertained. Lee Wilkinson's father Edgerton hitched up his team of horses and rode a riding plow for demonstration only.

Nick Kostick - a family man

Ninth Line neighbors and members of the Pinegrove Community Club were shocked and saddened to learn of the sudden death of Nick Kostick. Nick, in his 85th year, passed away while trimming around his home at RR1 Norval on Sept. 29.

A family man, true neighbor and friend, Nick was active to the end.

Maribeth Anne Warren and Edward John Bird were united in marriage Saturday, August 15 at St. Andrew's United Church, Beaverton. Maribeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Warren of Brechin, Ont. and Edward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bird of Georgetown. They travelled to the East Coast for their honeymoon and are residing at RR3 Georgetown.

He enjoyed living in the community. His son Doug said, "Dad has never been happier since he moved out here 22 years ago."

Nick was a keeper of the soil, and enjoyed working with the good earth. Not a blade of grass was left untouched, his gardens and lawns were all well groomed. Even his house was looked after with tender loving care. Nick was left a widower when his loving wife Dora Mostaway passed away three years ago in May. Nick always said he tried to keep everything like Dora would have it.

Nick and his wife Dora were both born and brought up in Yorkton, Saskatchewan by their Ukraine parents. They farmed there for many years in the horse and buggy days. No power machinery to work huge tracts of land. Always overnight trips to the elevators, mill and grocery store.

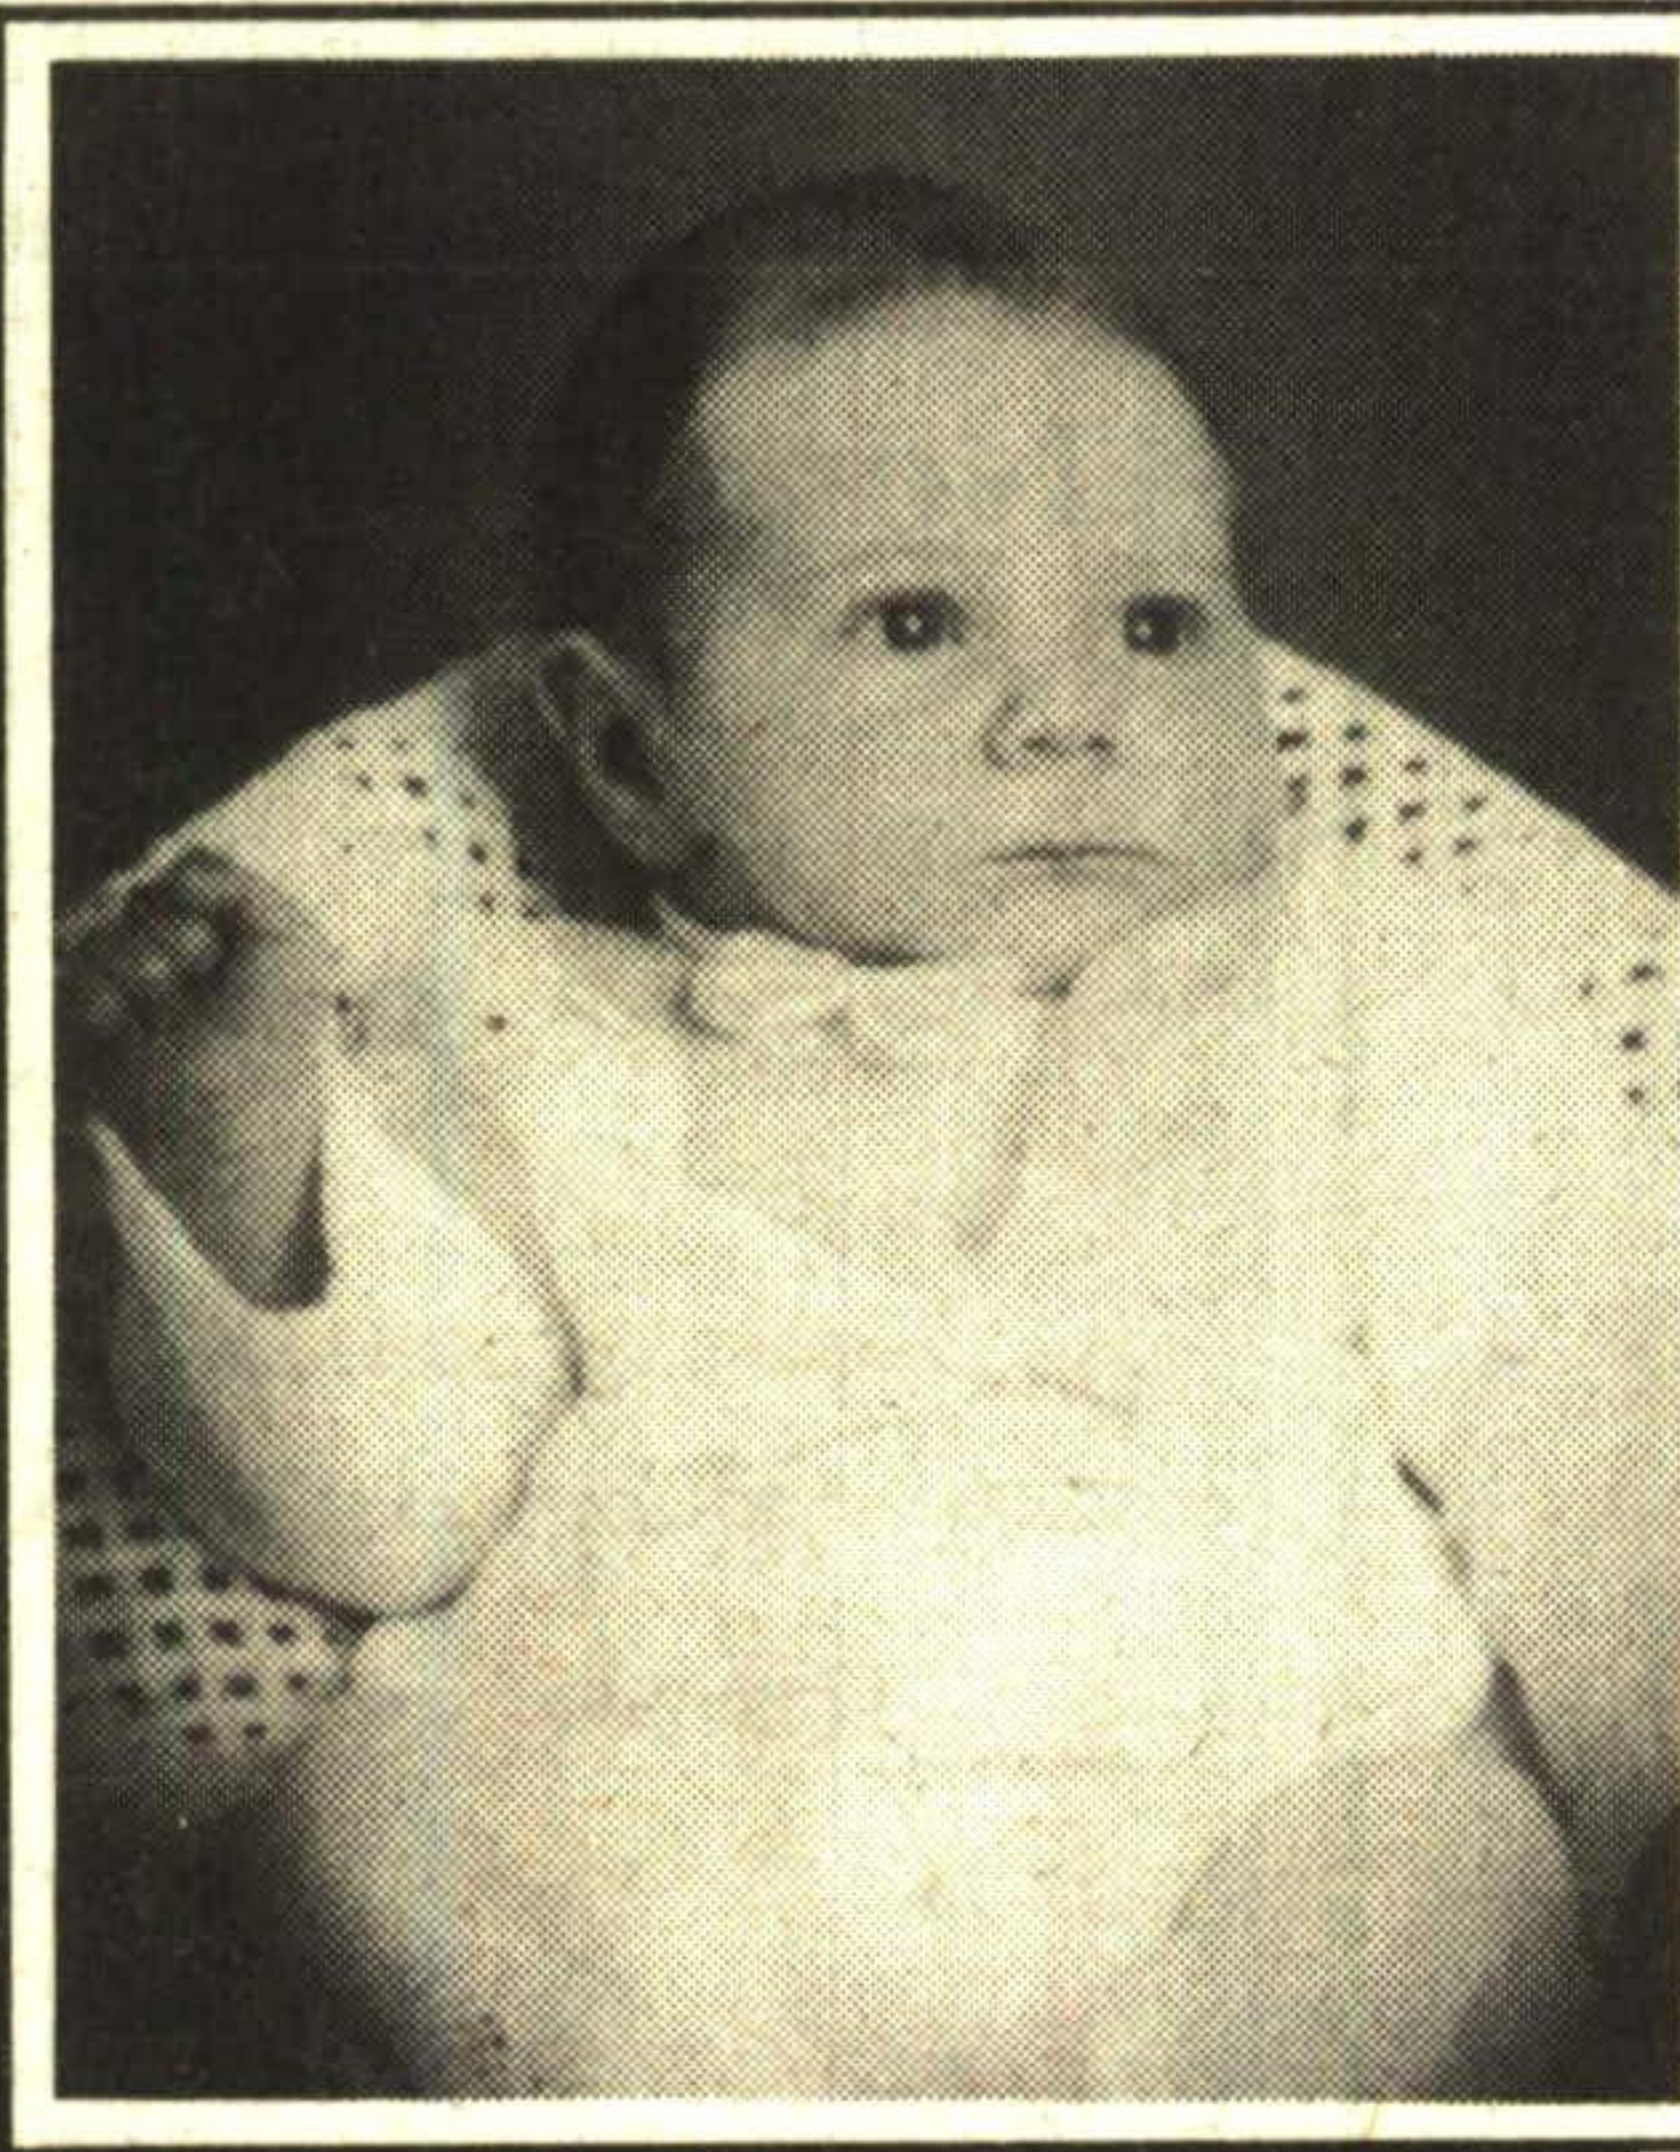

Then Nick decided to try work near Toronto, and moved to the Dixie area. Here they lived and brought up their only son Douglas, who is now with the Metro Police Force in Etobicoke. In 1970 they moved out to the Ninth Line and Nick managed the farms for Jack and Marg Goddard of Mississauga.

Nick was an avid fisherman and took much pleasure in fishing with son Doug and friends. He was a member of the Pinegrove Community Club and enjoyed his euchre games. But most of all Nick was a family man. Devoted father and friend of Doug and his wife Jill. Loving grandfather of Kim and Brian Kostick, and close to many family members.

The funeral service was held Oct. 2. Father Keith Kiddell, a family friend, conducted the service. The eulogy was given by niece Julie Henneke. Members of the Metro Police Force, Division 21 formed a Guard of Honor: P.C. Madelaine O'Driscoll, P.C. Ronald Ottewell, P.C. David Kelling (all from son Doug's platoon) and Inspector Rod Spencer, Staff Sergeant Rick White, Det. Darrell Campbell and Det. David Harlock.

Interment was in Glendale Memorial Gardens. Pallbearers were John Mostaway, Roger Henneke, Wallace Slone, Mervin Mostaway, Bernie Dubinsky and Steven Kostick.
