

Elks help

The Halton Hills Elks have donated a wheelchair to the new Georgetown Marketplace Mall for use of the mall's handicapped patrons. Accepting the wheelchair from Elk Jim Taylor (right) are mall manager Herminia Henderson and Adam Warner.

New program for asthmatic children

The Lung Association has set up a program to help parents and their asthmatic children.

It is appropriately called the Air Force Asthma Program. The program in Georgetown will run at the Georgetown District Hospital Wednesday, November 4 for three consecutive Wednesdays. The cost is $20 per family.

The Air Force asthma program is a "must" for those asthmatic children and their parents wanting to control their asthma and lead active, full lives!

The Air Force asthma program is an educational tool designed to assist asthmatic children (age six-12 years) and their parents in understanding and dealing with asthma.

The program:

- teaches self-management skills to the children so that they can take more responsibility for managing their asthma;
- provides parents with the knowledge and skills to help their children deal with this disease and its day to day problems.

To register or for more information about this program call The Lung Association - Halton Region, 847-1033.

On June 6, LeeAnn, daughter of Barry and Betty Caldwell married Peter Heissler, son of Karl and Sigrid. The double ring ceremony was held at Cheltenham United Church at 3 p.m. During the signing of the register "The Rose" was sung and Heather Sanderson read the verse. LeeAnn's sister, Peggy Sue, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Teri Doge, Cindy and Lisa Clarke, Brenda Everette and Sue Spicer. Peter's best man was Steve Clarke and his ushers were Scott Everette, Eric Hack, Kevin Harris, Bill Hay and Nicholas Murphy.

The reception and dance was held at Acton Legion. After the party the couple left in a limo to the Delta Inn Hotel.

Showers were held in LeeAnn's honor by her sister Peggy Sue, Shirley Hergert and Francis Hurd (cousins of bride), Celine Clarke and Eve Sanderson (aunts of bride), Teri Doge and a community shower held by Cheltenham and also a Jack and Jill party held in their honor.

Guests from Germany and the States came.

The couple have purchased a house and will make their home in Georgetown.
