GMHA Peewee

By DYLAN LEE

After three weeks of exhibition games the house league Peewee season began with three great games.

In the first game, Fred Roffel (assist Danny Jackman) opened the scoring for the Rockwell team, but a minute later Darren Mansfield (assist Mike McMenemy) countered for Georgetown Rent-all. At the end of two periods the score was still tied, now at 2-2, on Roffel's second goal (assists Curtis Gregson, Jackman) and a Rent-all goal by David Zeni (assists Adam McDonald, Sean Hardcastle). Rockwell pulled away in the third however, on two goals (one shorthanded) by Mark Quaglia (assists Mike Kelly, two) and one power play goal by Danny Jackman (assists Quaglia, Jason Watt). Final score Rockwell 5, Rent-all 2.

In the second game, Murray Motors jumped to an early lead with three unanswered goals in the first period by Sam Butt (2) and Shane Copland (assist Mike Madill) and a second period goal by Butt (assists Adam Ross, Kevin Moore). The Black Team scored in the second also however, on a goal by Joel Higgins (assists Chad Gemmil, Chad Corrin). By the halfway point of the third period, Black had closed the gap to 5-3, on goals by Jason MacArthur and Dirk McKee (assists Mike Rome, Joel Springer and Jeff Tregunna, two), and one by Murray Motors' Brian Normore (assist Copland). Late in the third Murray Motors put the game on ice with goals by Butt (fourth) and Copland (second), (assists Mike Carter, Topher Baker). Final score Murray Motors 7, Black 3.

The final game saw the first shutout of the season by Nick Toris and the Carpet Barn team, over the Georgetown Firefighters. Carpet Barn goals in the first by Jesse Ward (assists Clint Eggenberger, Adamo Discenza) and the third period by Ryan Gledhill (assists Ward, Sam Southworth) and Eggenberger (assists Southworth, Nathan Walraven). Final score Carpet Barn 3, Firefighters 0.
