Police Blotter

Uttering threats
Police have charged a 60-year-old Georgetown man with uttering a threat, assault and threatening to use a weapon in connection with an incident that occurred at his home early Sunday morning. Police report that the accused and his 52-year-old wife were arguing at breakfast, he became agitated and held a butter knife to his wife's throat. Police say the man turned over three of his rifles to police for safekeeping.

He is to appear in Milton court on Monday Nov. 30.

School break-in

Police are investigating a break and enter that occurred at a school on Hwy. 25 near Acton. Police say sometime overnight Tuesday and Wednesday unknown culprit(s) entered a portable at the school. A wrench was used to unbolt the door. Police say the culprit(s) took a cellular phone, a VCR, and joysticks for a Commodore computer. The missing property is valued at $600.

Flare fired

Police have charged a 13-year-old male youth from Burlington with mischief and breach of probation in regard to an incident that resulted in $600 worth of damage to a tile floor (due to the discharge of a flare) at a Georgetown restaurant on Sunday, Nov. 1. The youth is to appear in Milton court on Friday, Dec. 18.

Vandals enter home under construction

Some time during the first two weeks in October, vandals broke into a house under construction on Credit River Road in Erin.

The culprits kicked in a door to gain entry and then smashed holes in the drywall throughout the home causing extensive damage.

Any information that leads to an arrest in this vandalism or any other serious crime, may earn you
