

United churches hold musical talent night

A Musical Talent Night for Home, Huttonville and Norval United churches was held on November 8 in Norval Church. Rev. Ann Rowsell chaired the evening.

The hymn Joyful, Joyful opened up a hymn sing of four beautiful hymns. A piano and organ duet was given by Alan Ford, organist and choir leader of Norval and Huttonville churches and Dennis Van Ravens, organist and choir leader of Home Church.

A trio of Norval ladies, Ruth Lyons, Glenn Laidlaw and Lois Reid sang The Voice in the Old Village Choir. Lois Reid on her guitar and Fred Paul with his accordion played and sang Them Days. Fred and Helen Paul, both from Newfoundland, sang a down home tune "Stones That You Throw, with the help of Lois Reid. The Pauls' daughter Cathy played an organ solo Supercalifrag and Heartaches by the Number. Cathy was accompanied in the last number by her dad on the mouth organ.

Jack Crawford gave a reading My Wife's Fur Coat that brought howls of laughter and applause.

The offering taken was given to the building fund for Heart Lake United Church during a hymn sing Oh Come Let us Adore Him and I'll Fly Away.

KAY WILSON

Rev. Ann sang a solo How Can I Say Thanks. Fred and Helen Paul and Lois Reid played and sang Could I have this Dance.

Lorraine Lawrence caught the attention of all by singing the beautiful Climb Every Mountain from the Sound of Music. An organ solo by Dennis Van Ravens led up to his son Art, his wife Darlene and children Jeff, Katie and Craig singing I Want to Walk and Blessed are the People, accompanied by Art on the guitar.

Home Church Choir sang Father - Take My Life and He Keeps Me Singing. Alan Ford's piano solo led up to the finale of singing The Day Thou Gavest and Abide With Me. Dennis and Alan finished off by playing The Battle Hymn of the Republic. A fellowship hour was enjoyed over coffee and cookies.
