

Top athletes honored

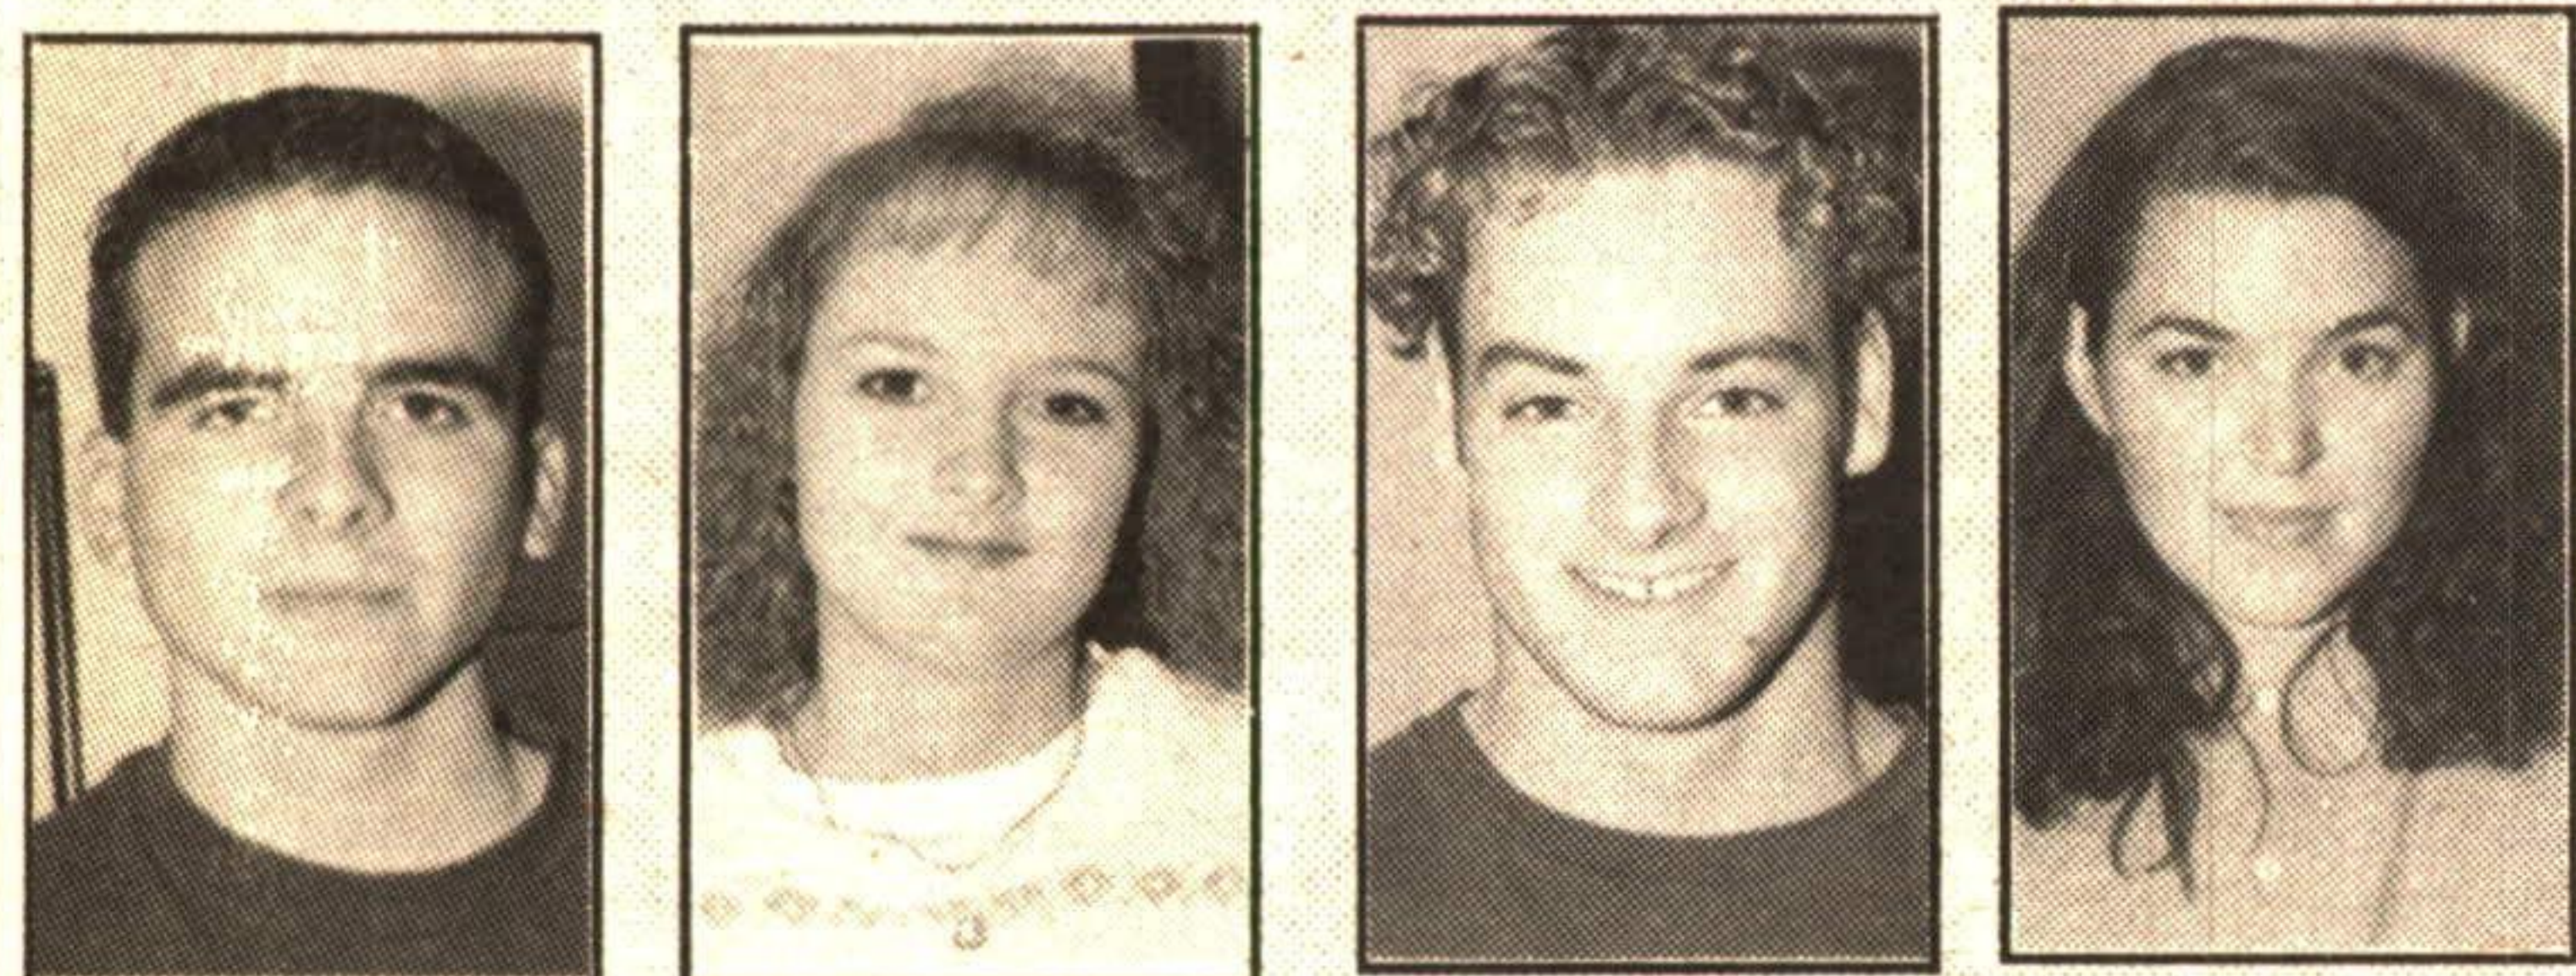

ACTON HIGH SCHOOL

Acton midget boys' volleyball player LUCAS ZINKE, 14, has been putting in great performances at power/centre for his squad during recent tournaments, including a recent contest on home court when the team beat Oakville Trafalgar and lost to Bishop Reding. AMANDA BONNELL, 13, is a member of the Redmen cross country team. Recently, she took 22nd place at GHAC in Hamilton and finished an impressive fifth the previous week at the Haltons in Milton.

GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Senior boys' volleyball setter RYAN BRAIN, 17, has looked outstanding during recent tournaments at Mount Carmel and Father Redmen and has played a major role in the Senior Rebels amazing 8-1 season record. The GDHS JUNIOR GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY TEAM took first place honors at both the Haltons and GHAC recently. Ellen-Louise Matthews, Esther Copland, Emma Gelok, and Jodye Johnson. At GHAC, Jodye (pictured above) placed 3rd, Esther 8th, Ellen-Louise Matthews 9th, and Emma 15th.

ACTON HIGH SCHOOL

Power STEVE BOTTERO, 16, of the Acton Redmen junior boys' volleyball squad came up strong against Assumption in first round play-off action. Despite his solid performance on offence, the Redmen lost 2-1, which brought their season to an end. DEANNA LOUTH, 18, did a great job on guard for the Redmen senior girls' basketball team recently. While the girls' came up short in contests against Lord Elgin and Burlington Central, Deanna put in a strong performance on both offence and defence.

GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Middle linebacker ROB ELM-SLIE, 18, led the Rebel senior football squad's defensive unit to a shutout against Loyola two weeks ago on route to Georgetown's 19-0 victory. Rob and company provided great blocking and coverage during this strong win for Georgetown. ANDREA SCHNEIDER, 18, provided some exciting offence during recent senior girls' basketball games. The senior Rebels however, took a pair of tough losses to Lord Elgin and Lester B. Pearson.

Over the past few weeks students at Acton and Georgetown High Schools have been honored for their outstanding efforts on the sports fields. Here are the recipients of the McDonald's Athlete of the Week honors for Acton High and the MVP/McDonald's Athlete of the Week for Georgetown for the weeks of November 2 and 9.

Burlington rolls past Georgetown atoms

The Georgetown Major Atom AA hockey team, sponsored by John Henderson Pro Shop, played host to a strong skating Burlington team at Memorial Arena, on Sunday, November 8.

An aggressive, quick-breaking Burlington team took a 3-0 lead into the second period.

Only three stoppages in play throughout the second period showed the end to end action as Mike Rovere, Matthew Hotham and Ryan Bobor forechecked aggressively.

Burlington only managed one goal in the period due to the strong defensive play of Derek Mitchell, Bryan Stuttard, Scott Ellis and Jason Hayes.

Quickly, in the third period with Burlington tiring, Georgetown's combination of Josh Travers and Daniel Smith scored the first goal for Georgetown. Burlington quickly struck back to make the score 5-1. Showing a lot of heart Georgetown narrowed the score to 5-2 on a great goal by Ryan Bobor.

Strong goaltending by Ryan Carter kept the score from going much higher as the game ended at 6-2.

Torrid pace for Hurricane minor bantams

The JDP Computer Hurricanes beat Guelph and Brampton on the weekend to hold first place in the league with seven wins, one tie and a loss. They have played all teams in the league and they followed up their only loss to Ching with a victory against them the next day.

The October 31 game against Guelph, a new team in the league, was played in Erin and featured some very rough action before Halton earned the 3-1 victory. Guelph tried to intimidate the speedier Hurricanes but were unable to finish off plays. Centre Justin Davis, at 1:24 of the first, broke in from the blue line on a pass from Peter Mashinter and nailed the puck over the goalie's glove hand. Davis with his game winning power play second, one timed it beautifully on short relays from Jon Atley. Tom Baynton dug it out of the corner.

Less than a minute later Jamie Walker darted in from the right circle and deposited the team's third goal. Baynton again assisted. Guelph foiled Geoff Beuparlant's shutout with less than two minutes to play. As is their habit, the Hurricanes played much of the second period shorthanded and only a gutsy penalty killing effort saved them.

The game against Brampton Maroons on November 1 featured some superb end to end rushes.

Brampton opened scoring when the Hurricanes got caught on a line change and it remained 1-0 for the first two periods. Geoff Beuparlant and the Brampton goalie were outstanding on shot after shot.

Finally with 9:05 left in the game defenceman Matt "Boom Boom" Vervoorn fired a blazer from the blue line off a power play to tie the game. Davis got the assist. Steven Roy steered in the game winner with under three minutes to play on passes from Walker and Darin Finlayson. Curtis Carr, Robert Haringa and Richard Trotter delivered some jolting checks during the game.

Halton hopes to be back at full strength this week with the return of feisty centre Matt Rimmer who has been sidelined for three weeks with a shoulder injury.

Former CFL'er helps Rebels

Joining the coaching staff this season was 10-year CFL veteran John Malinowski, who provided his knowledge of strategy and formation to the Rebels' offensive and defensive lines.

Malinowski, who was an offensive tackle with Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, and Hamilton, explained that he really enjoyed his first coaching experience with the Rebels this season.

"This was a new experience for me. I felt a little awkward at first but was comfortable with the players and coaches very quickly," said Malinowski. "There's a lot of dedication on the part of the coaches and players on this team."

Line work wasn't a specialty of the senior Rebels in past years and Malinowski has helped the squad improve their blocking and coverage.

He says he would like to continue coaching at the local level and feels it important to give something back to the community of Georgetown. "If I can pass on some of my knowledge of the game and help build character in some of these players, I'll be happy."
