Arthur no match for atoms

Last Tuesday Arthur came to town and crawled home after a piercing 11-2 loss at the hands of the Acton Atom Galvcast Sabres.

You knew it had to be Acton's night when an Arthur player rifled in a shot past his own netminder to give Acton an early 1-0 lead.

Leading the Sabre dance for Galvcast was Shawn Weatherall who racked up seven points with five goals and two assists. Popping a hat trick was Greg Barens. Other Acton snipers were Richard Raju, one goal, three assists, Matt Bodin, one goal, one assist, Jason Christopher, one goal. Lending helping hands were Ryan Young with four assists, Sandy Chapman, two assists, Paul Withers, two assists. Single helpers went to Kyle Artem, Scott Monaghan and Ron McCaslin.

On Sunday Milton travelled north to Acton for an exhibition game and went home smiling as they took home a curfewed shortened 2-1 victory.

The Sabre Galvcast netminding tandem of Thomas Wolfer and Andrew Coe made numerous saves to keep the game close and Shawn Weatherall was the only Sabre to beat the Milton goaltender with assists going to Paul Withers and Kyle Artem.

Rebels fall in volleyball

Coming up strong in game one for Georgetown were Adam Poyntz, Matt Deruchie and Kevin Latchford, who came up with some exciting diving saves and good hitting. Martin Sommer and Andy Elliot substituted in and out for each other and made some great plays.

Georgetown kept things a lot closer in game two with stronger defence but didn't have what it takes to stop Fenton and his lethal offensive attack. The Rebels were able to claw their way to a few exciting points late in the contest but fell 15-10.

Ryan Brain and John Katsilieris came up big for Georgetown with Brain's great setting and Katsilieris' solid defence and blocking. Jim Katsilieris and Randy Bond came in during the second game and made some good plays.

"They beat us at our own game, they played it smart and went to Fenton most of the time," explained head coach Bob McKay.

Despite the losses, the Rebels volleyball teams once again turned out a great season.
