

Pictures & Presents will hold an Unconventional Art Auction Dec. 1-6, with proceeds to the Cancer Society. Selected artwork will have a bid sheet, with a low reserve bid with set increments. Shoppers are invited to put their name and bid on the sheet, and come in or call as many times as they wish to check on the bid or re-bid. Above from left are Elaine Chatten, Cancer Society fundraiser chairperson and Theresa Rodobolski, Pictures & Presents owner holding a Robert Bateman print to be included.

Daughters of Knox

Remembering topic of meeting

The regular meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held on Nov. 2 in the Mary Ellen Anderson Room of Knox Church, Acton. President Anne Moore opened the meeting with a prayer about peace.

The devotional portion of the meeting was taken by Mary Findlay and her group. The theme of the service was "Remembering." Mary read a Remembrance Day poem by Mary Beth Robertson.

Following the Devotions, Rev. Craig Cribar presented the study on Presbyterianism, noting that the Presbyterian Church is one of the Reformed and Reforming churches and that Evangelism is bringing the Good News to people.

Treasurer Marg Toth gave an itemized account of funds raised through the bazaar. It was noted that the winner of the quilt draw was M. Ratcliffe of Wingham Rd., Acton and the winner of the porcelain doll was Mary McDonald of Eden Mills.

The Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Marlene Cribar.

The group leaders' names were drawn to determine which parts of the Christmas program they and their groups would be responsible for - and are as follows: Worship - Renee Watson; Games - Inez Brennan; Food - Mary Findlay.

The Nominating Committee for 1993 are: Renee Watson, Anne Moore, Helen Otterbein, Gladys Price and Mary Findlay.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

16 Friendly Seniors meet

The Friendly Seniors met on November 4 with 16 members in attendance. The president, Ruth Millson, opened the meeting with a reading.
