

Flying the flag

The Halton Lung Association raised the flag Tuesday at Halton Region headquarters to publicize its $200,000 Christmas Seals campaign, currently under way until the end of March. With the flag are Halton Region chairman Peter Pomeroy (left) with volunteers Fay and Harry Zeid. To date, half of the money, $96,000, has been raised. Funds are used for the association's program including Family Asthma, Air Force education in the schools, and quit smoking clinics.

TD Bank hoping to help lighten up holiday season

The Toronto-Dominion Bank, 231 Guelph Street is working to "light up" hearts across Halton Hills in time for Christmas.

For just $5 anybody can visit this TD Branch and "buy" a Christmas light on the branch's Christmas tree. At the promotion's end, all donations will be turned over to the Kinsmen Toy Drive. TD will match the amount of contributions made.

At the same time, a bin will be set up in the branch to collect new unwrapped toys on behalf of the Kinsmen Toy Drive.
