Surprise guests at meeting

The overall units of Norval U.C.W. held their Christmas meeting on Dec. 2 in the church with close to 30 ladies attending. Brenda Bryce, president of the Friendship Unit, presided, assisted by Mary Crawford. A potluck dinner was enjoyed followed by a reading by Dorothy McLean "Spin Me a Story" reminding all of us the dedication of our parents and grandparents in the church.

Beth Laidlaw read the minutes and Carol Anne Roberts gave the treasurer's report. A $100 donation to each of four charity groups was approved. A $5 money donation to the collection for the evening is to be given the Salvation Army. Our church's assistant minister is Paul Ivany assisted by his father Col. Calvin Ivany of the Salvation Army. A microwave oven, as well as a TV and VCR are to be looked into purchasing.

Glen Laidlaw and her sister graciously gave of their talents to lead in the Christmas Devotional of Scriptures and carols.

Santa and Mrs. Claus made a surprise visit, decked out in their red suit and skirt, telling many stories and gifts for all, courtesy of Santa and Mrs. Claus, and the happy meaningful evening came to a close.
