Top athletes honored

Hancock leads junior players

Here we go, here we go, here we go - to borrow a famous phrase from another sport. Lots of news this week.

Youth darts at the George each Saturday afternoon from 1 p.m. Kyle Hancock is the points leader with 21 to date. Harvey Snow and late starter Phil Scutt are close behind. Jason Mercer and Teresa Mercer are not too far behind either. Reports are that all 16 players are enjoying all the fun. Top score of 140 is held by Kyle Hancock, with several other high scores. Phil Scutt has 123, Harvey Snow and Teresa Mercer both have scored 114 and Jason Mercer 105. The Brampton area youth league has also begun and is held at the Manhattan Hobo at Kennedy/Church.

Halton darts also runs the adult Monday night pub league with the top five teams all winning by 10-4, therefore, no change at the top. Legion #4 remain undefeated, Legion #2 coming a cropper. McGibbon took out Legion #3 and George #2 held off Legion #1 with O'Tooles defeating George #3. Other scores are George #1 winning 8-6 over #4, Copper Kettle #2 5 - Timeout #1 9 and Kettle #2 8-6 over Timeout #2.

Some indifferent darts were thrown in the top match, according to the standings, between number two and number six, George #2 and Legion #1 respectively. The first two and last three singles were split with the centre sets going to George for a 5-3 lead. The teams were tied setting up the doubles as a clincher. The visitors took all four doubles for the match by 10-4. Ian McDonald had two 140s and Dan Fraser 140 and 135, Karen Buckley 135.

Stan Rhynold had a huge night, leading from the front so to speak 180, 140, high finish of 118 and winning singles, doubles and teams. Alex Paterson closed 103 and Jeff Henderson closed out 101. Jack Hamilton popped a 180, Paul Dean 160 and Gord Yake 162 for high scores.

Meanwhile, on Wednesday evening, Hustlers took a slight three point lead in the Industrial league first division from Gasketman Cutters with their 9-0 rout of Inter County. Cutters defeated third place Westenders 7-2, Steeprock coming closer after taking out Acadian Pools 8-1. High Rollers won 7-2 over Panthers leaving the standings the same as the previous week.

In the second division an upset heads the news. Dreamteam lost for the first time this season 5-4 to Hotshots.

The Halton league held its monthly meeting and had to postpone the monthly 50/50 draw due to the absence of secretary June Norton through illness. The draw will be made later. The Eddie Paterson Memorial tourney is set for January 9, 1993 at the George as usual. There was talk of a possible change of venue, which is not taking place. More details later of this one. Darts Ontario Zone shoots, which are open to all upon payment of the required fees, are next on January 10 and, if my current information is correct, will be at Acton Legion. More details of this tourney later. Points are given for attendance and wins to qualify for a potential shot at the full qualifying shoot in March.

Keep shooting, keep smiling.
