THE BAHAI FAITH FROM A-Z

F

ENCOURAGEMENT

Faith has been described as a fewness of words and an abundance of deeds. But moreover it is the satisfaction of both mind and heart in one's deepest beliefs about life.

Stewart claims junior crown in Royal Fair Winter event

The cream rose to the top as Kelly Stewart of Hornby claimed the premier junior showmanship title at The Royal Winter Fair Nov. 20.

The 21-year-old was selected out of a field of 72 competitors for her ability to show Holstein calf Provale Inspir Barbie, owned by Jack Proud of Oakville. It's a talent she's been developing since she was six years old. Kelly has earned many awards through the years as a member of Halton 4-H.

She led the Halton contingent, followed by Connie Bennett who earned second place in the show ring and Tyler Brander who took eighth place.

The President's Cup Junior Showmanship Competition sponsored by Holstein Canada operates with three qualifying heats and a final which features about 30 of the best showmen.

For her win Kelly received a stained glass award. The top 10 contestants each received an engraved President's Cup medallion and a cash award.

In the Scotia Bank Hays Classic which pitted 4-Hers from across Canada against each other Jennifer Livock of Milton placed first, Todd Livock also of Milton placed second and Tyler Brander of Norval placed third.

In total points Prince Edward Island took first place and Halton tied for second with Wentworth County.

In the Showmanship Calf competition Connie Bennett placed first and Tyler Brander took tenth place.

Grand champion Showmanship was Paul Cleave of Norval and Connie Bennett was named the reserve champion.
