

Belfountain Church's candlelight service Dec. 23

Belfountain Village Church holds its annual community candlelight service on Wednesday, Dec. 23 at 7:30 p.m.

All are welcome at the traditional event which includes lots of Christmas carols and special music.

For the event the century-old stone church, near the junction of Mississauga Rd., and the Forks of Credit Rd., has been decorated with a nativity scene and a giant Christmas tree.

Guest musicians are Carol-Dean Jeffries (piano) and Kerstin Chapman (cello) of Rocky Ridge Ranch, a Christian centre at RR2, Rockwood.

Church organist Laura Forbes and daughter Paula are also on the program with piano and flute numbers.

Trio and duet singers from the Sunday School include Natalie Bell, Ronnie Bellamy and Trudy Young.

Pastor John Bell who has served the church as full-time pastor since September, 1990 is speaker at the service. The church is affiliated with the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec.

There will be refreshments and fellowship in the church hall following the candlelight service. All are welcome to attend.

Starting January 3 there is to be a change in Sunday morning services which have for years commenced at 9:30 a.m. In 1993 the church will hold Sunday School for adults and children from 9:30 a.m. to 10:20 a.m. and morning worship service from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

The congregation at Belfountain numbers about 60 adults and children.

Brookville School students take time out from the Christmas Concert to decorate the Christmas "Mitten" tree with mittens for children in need. Adding the mittens were Caley French (the Shepherd), Tiffany Clark (the Indian Maiden), Kindergarten singers Melinda Moore and Rhonda Carrier and Primary Choir singer, Jennifer Fair.
