Register January 9

Credit Valley Artisans offer varied courses

Another great line-up of courses has been assembled by the Credit Valley Artisans with the first scheduled to begin Sunday, January 17. Registration in person will be at the Cedarvale Cottage on Saturday, January 9, between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

It should be noted that while courses are filled in the order that fees are paid, the "in-person" registration will take priority over those mailed in.

The courses available this winter session include:

Drawing: Six Wednesdays, 7 p.m. until 9:30 p.m., February 3 through March 10.

Intermediate Watercolor Painting: Six Tuesdays, 7 p.m. until 10 p.m., January 26, February 2, 16, 23, March 2, 16.

Pottery for Beginners: (A) - Eight Wednesdays, 12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. or (B) - Eight Wednesdays, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., February 24 through April 14.

Intermediate Stained Glass: Four Thursdays, 7 p.m. until 10 p.m., Feb. 4, 18, 23 and March 4.

Embroidery: Four Thursdays, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., February 4, 11, 18 and 25.

There are also three courses specifically designed for children.

Drawing for Children (aged 9-12): Three Sundays from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., January 17, 24 and 31.

Pottery for Children (aged 8-11): Three Saturdays, February 13, 10 a.m. to noon, February 27 and March 13, 11 a.m. to noon.

Weaving for Children (aged 9-12): Three Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon, January 30, February 6 and 20.

These courses are all held at the Cedarvale Cottage at Main St. and Maple Ave. in Georgetown.

The classes are small so students get close attention from the instructor.

The courses are filled on a registration paid basis, first come, first served. Some of the courses fill quickly so prompt registration is advised, particularly for the children's courses.

Registration forms are available at the library in Georgetown and also at the Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department.

You can also get more specific information on the courses by calling the registrar Karen King at (416) 873-2018.
