

Sears helps hospital

The Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital Foundation is $544 richer after Sears Canada Catalog store manager Margurite Hulme (of both the Acton and Georgetown stores) recently presented Foundation Chairman Graeme Goebelle with the cheque. The funds were raised by the sale of Sears Christmas Wish Books, for a price of $4 each, including coupons for $5, which the customer could redeem. Sears then donated the proceeds to local hospitals which serve the areas served by their catalog stores. TED BROWN Independent/Free Press

CrimeStoppers gets a helping hand

A unique fundraising drive is being organized by Southland Canada Incorporated to collect money at its 7-Eleven stores across Ontario to assist various Crime Stoppers programs.

"All proceeds collected in donation boxes during January, May and July will be given to Crime Stoppers," said Derek Perks of Southland Canada Incorporated.

Perks said through the years the donation boxes at 7-Eleven stores have been used exclusively to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy, but the program is being expanded in 1993 to provide assistance to other charitable organizations.

Sergeant Dan Farr of Crime Stoppers of Halton said "the 40 Crime Stoppers programs in Ontario appreciate the support being provided by the network of 7-Eleven stores and the recognition given by Southland Canada Incorporated of the crime fighting efforts of various programs.

"Money collected in donation boxes will be used to pay rewards for tips to Crime Stoppers which help police solve crimes in our community," said Farr.

Across Ontario, the several Crime Stoppers programs have been responsible for recovering $38,375,081 in stolen property and the seizure of illicit drugs worth $66,085,174 off the streets.
