

Banquet February 20

Wellington Jr. Farmers celebrate 75th birthday

The Wellington County Junior Farmers are gearing up for their biggest event yet. On Saturday, Feb. 20, the organization will be holding their 75th anniversary banquet and dance at the Fergus Community Centre.

"These anniversaries are always a lot of fun," says banquet chairperson Gerald Leslie of Rockwood. "This banquet has drawn together a committee of past and present Junior Farmer members - of all ages."

"Junior Farmers is an organization that lives up to its motto of 'self-help and community betterment'," Leslie said.

Many of the members who are volunteering their time, agree that Junior farmers has offered them various opportunities of meeting new friends and challenges.

"The 75th banquet will give us all an opportunity to reflect upon the events we participated in and to rekindle past friendships," emphasizes Leslie.

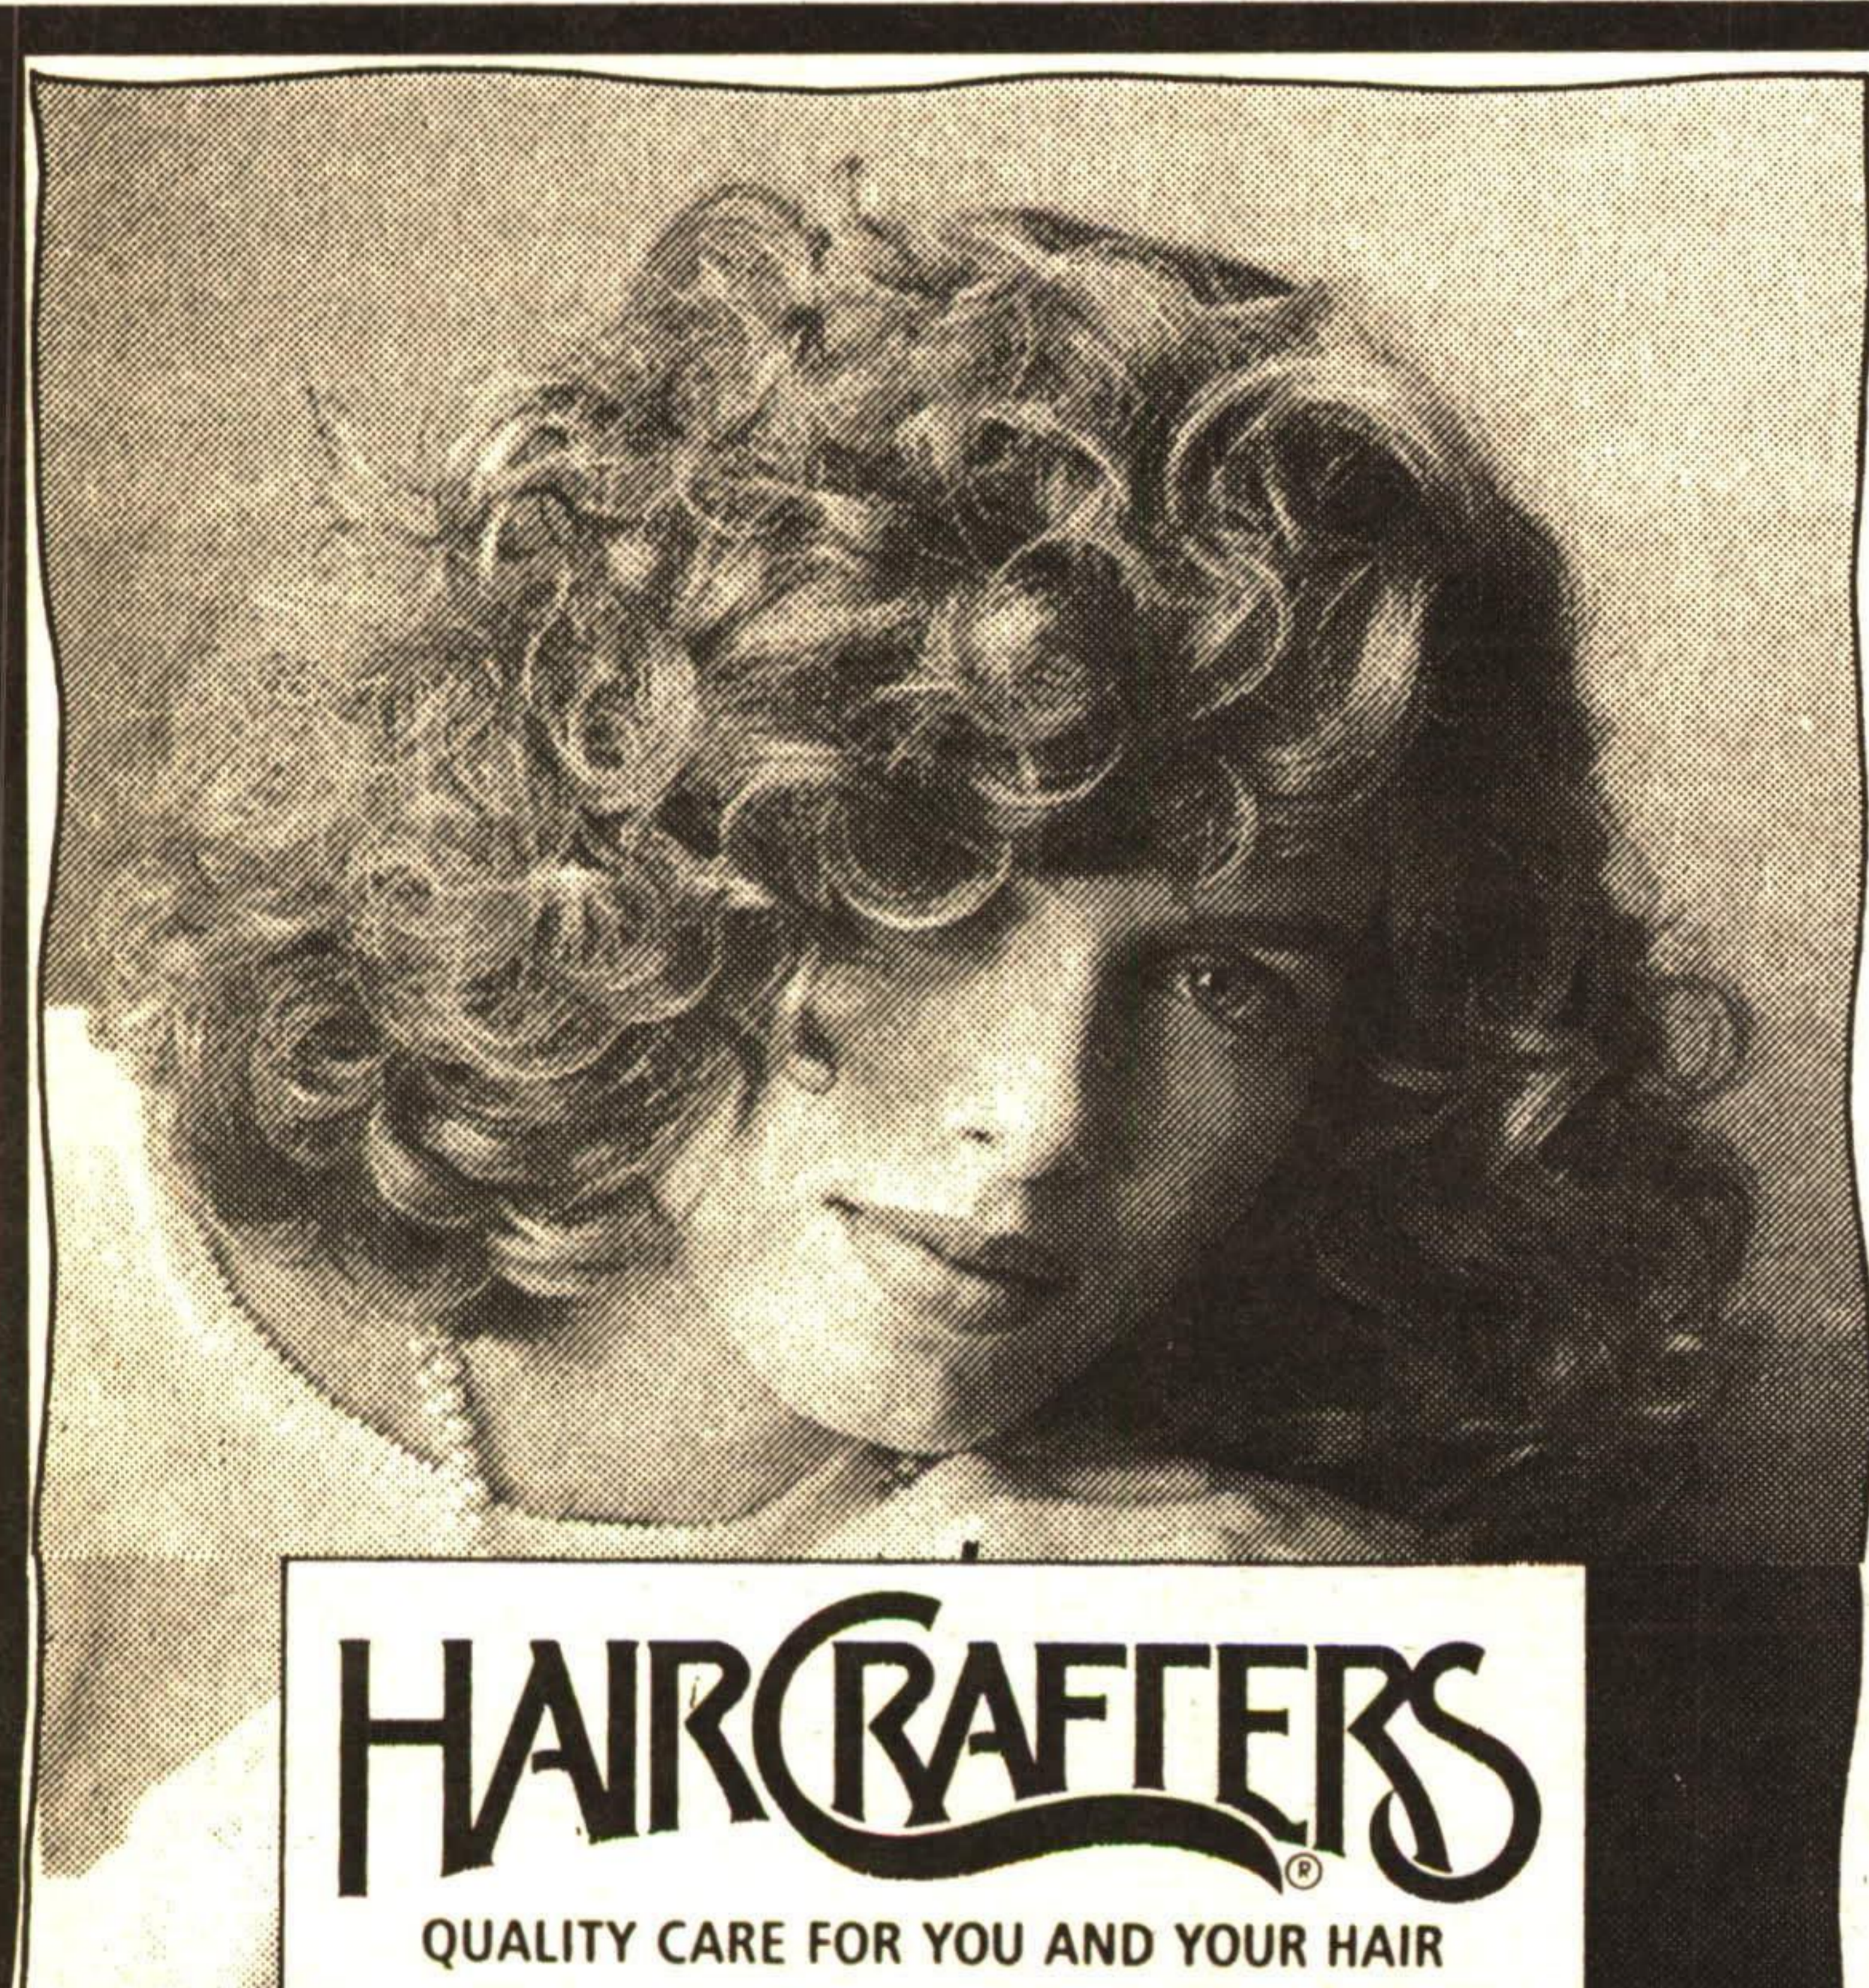

Presently, the Wellington County Junior Farmers has close to 100 members and represents clubs from Centre Wellington, Eramosa, Maryborough, and Mount Forest. In the past, clubs were also represented in such areas as Arthur, Harriston, Hillsburgh, Bethany, Rockwood, Puslinch, Rothsay, Minto, and Belwood.

As part of their fundraising and promotional activities of the banquet, a 75th anniversary quilt will be raffled off on February 20. Tickets will be available during the evening or from Junior Farmer members.

It was five years ago when members united at the last anniversary banquet, and over 300 past and present members were in attendance. Committee members are hoping for a strong turnout. During the dance, a live band, Nighthawk from Paris, will be playing.

Banquet tickets may be ordered through Gerald Leslie of Rockwood (519-856-4719) or through the Wellington County OMAF office by contacting Linda McFadden or Mary VandenBorre at 519-846-0941 or 1-800-265-8332.
