- Tray ceilings add architectural interest to dining and living rooms.
- Open kitchen design offers easy conversation and supervision of family room activities.
- Crowning gallery offers access to bedrooms and bonus room, spaced for privacy.
- Master suite is washed in natural light from a full glass wall, broken only by a wood burning fireplace.
- Glass block detailing in ensuite continues the flow of light while providing privacy at the shower and whirlpool bath.
- Bonus room and full basement allows for additional living space.
