Budget committee approves grants to community groups

Halton Hills councillors gave the go-ahead to $8,500 worth of grants to several community groups this year at a budget committee meeting Tuesday night.

Council has to approve the grants yet, and will likely do so at a meeting Monday, March 8. The town's 1993 operating budget, will go to committee on Monday, March 1.

Grant approvals for 1993 are up $4,300 from last year's total of $4,200 doled out by the town to community groups.

Grant requests approved Tuesday night include $4,500 for the Acton Citizen's Band, $250 each for the Georgetown and Acton agricultural societies, $500 for the Glen Williams Town Hall Board, $700 for Arts Alive, $1,000 for the Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band, a $500 operating grant for the Ballinafad Community Centre and $800 for the North Halton Volunteer Centre.

Budget committee members turned down requests for $8,850 from the Halton Amateur Radio Club, $1,000 from the Georgetown Children's Chorus, $2,700 from the Air Cadet League of Canada #756, a $15,000 capital grant from the Ballinafad Community Centre, any amount from the Salvation Army and Halton Hills Music Teacher's Association, and $2,500 from the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Stolen property charges

Two Mississauga teens were charged with possession of stolen property after an incident on Guelph St. and Mountainview Rd. in Georgetown early Wednesday morning. Police report that at 2 a.m. while on patrol, a vehicle was seen exiting the car lot of Georgetown Chrysler with its lights off. A search of the vehicle later revealed four car phone antennas valued at $100 had been taken from cars on the lot. One of the youths was also charged with property damage and two counts of mischief. A total of $700 in damage was caused to vehicles on the lot during the incident.

Break and enters

A 20-year male of no fixed address has been charged with four counts of break and enter in Halton Region which occurred between January 14 and January 26. According to police, two homes on Sixth Line in Halton Hills were broken into January 14. Nothing was taken during the first break-in and $700 worth of traveler's cheques was removed during the second break-in. A total of $7,000 worth of jewelry and booze was taken during a break-in on Yale Crescent in Oakville January 18 and $1,500 in jewelry, VCR, a camera and booze was stolen during a break-in on 15 Sideroad in Halton Hills January 26.

Stereo swiped

A car stereo valued at $300 was stolen from a vehicle parked at an apartment building complex on John St. and Mountainview Rd. in Georgetown last weekend. Police report that sometime between 9:30 p.m. Saturday and 1 a.m. Sunday, unknown person(s) entered the unlocked vehicle that was parked in the visitor's parking area and removed the stereo. No damage was caused to the dashboard.

Scared by alarm

According to police, nothing was taken during an attempted break and enter on Wildwood Drive in Georgetown this week. Sometime between 8 a.m. Monday and 11 a.m. Wednesday, the rear door of the home was found open with $75 in damage to the door frame. It is believed that the alarm went off and scared the unknown person(s) away.
