Dog stunt show, magic acts and more at College Royal

The 69th College Royal open house at the University of Guelph gets underway March 13 and 14.

It's the largest open house of its kind in Ontario, involving more than 1,000 students and welcoming about 25,000 visitors each year. The campus will be open Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This year for the first time on College Royal weekend, the campus will also play host to thousands of Ontario secondary school students visiting the university for Campus Days, information days on university life.

The 1993 College Royal theme, "Discover the Difference," will be reflected in club displays and events across campus. New this year is a free stage in the University Centre featuring such acts as a ventriloquist, jazz band, dance troupe and student talent competition. Traditional events include a cat show, fashion show, chemistry magic show, Old MacDonald's Farm, demonstrations of animal surgery and a petting zoo. The 40th annual dog show Sunday at 11 a.m. in the twin-pad arena will feature a doggie stunt show and sheep-herding demonstrations at half-time. Fine art students will display their work in Zavitz Hall as part of the 25th annual Juried Art Show.

College Royal offers prospective students and their parents an opportunity to talk to faculty, admissions officers and students. An admissions display will be set up in the University Centre courtyard both days, and guided tours of the campus and residences will be available.

A free shuttle bus will be available to transport visitors to events across campus. Maps and information will be available in the University Centre.
