Potluck dinner

Norval United church Past and Present Elders enjoyed a potluck dinner at the church on March 11. Twenty-seven elders and spouses sat down to a potluck dinner. Mary Crawford planned the evening and asked elder Charlie Forsyth to ask the blessing.

Following the dinner, Mary called on Rev. Ann Rowsell who made several announcements, including the newly elected elders, who are Loraine Lawrence and Anne Wilson. Mary read an Irish poem in keeping with St. Patrick's Day and several Irish songs were sung with Glenn Laidlaw leading, accompanied by Lois Reid on guitar. All members present were glad to welcome Catherine Forsyth who tripped on the church stairs and broke her ankle at the Christmas Eve Service.

The evening finished off with the singing of several hymns accompanied by Jean Dunlop on the piano. Rev. Ann closed with prayer.
