Fun euchre night at Norval church

Craft show

Norval Community meets
Norval Community Association's open meeting for Norval area residents, March 30, 8 p.m. at the Community Centre. There will be an update on the dump, and on the Norval Secondary Plan, and other concerns, residents may have. Everyone welcome.

Church euchre
Norval Presbyterian Church held a very successful evening of progressive euchre with 15 tables playing.

The lucky lady winners were Eleanor McClure and Mary Robinson, and John McNabb and Archie Lawr took the men's prizes. Jean Cunningham had the most lone hands and Sam McClure took the lucky chair prize. Other draw winners were John Hamilton, Margaret McKane, Catherine Leslie and Harold McClure.

We are very grateful to Crawford's Pine Valley Farms, Laidlaw's Apple Factory, Webb's Florists and Mary Bond of Hallmark Gifts for their generous donations. Thanks to all friends and neighbors for making it a fun night.

Brampton West W.I.
Brampton West Women's Institute members met at the home of Isobel McKay Tuesday, March 9.

President Dorothy Ostrander welcomed the members and visitors and district president Jane Christie. Secretary Bernice Whaley read the correspondence. The roll call was answered by presenting a hand written list of the departments in the provincial legislature and the minister responsible for each department. Mona Embury and Isabel Fraser were each presented with a prize for the longest list.

Tweedsmuir History books were on display. Each member is to prepare family information which will be added to the branch Tweedsmuir History book.

Isobel McKay introduced Carol Maudsley from the Ministry in charge of Seniors' Affairs at Queen's Park. There are more than one million senior citizens in Ontario and a variety of services and programs are available to them, which prolong the independence, safeguard the rights and promote the well being of seniors in Ontario. The services are available, culturally sensitive and accessible. The Good Neighbors program is in place in several communities including Brampton.

Mona Embury gave the courtesies and thanked the committee Isobel McKay, Wilma Archdekin and Esther McClure for an interesting and informative meeting.
