

Youthful series participants set

The last two divisions of the Youthful Series went postward on the Easter Sunday matinee program to determine final contenders for the $32,400 final set for Saturday, April 17.

Laagical Move and driver Roger Mayotte took over past a :29.1 opening quarter to control the rest of the mile in the first $9,000 division clocking a :58 half and a 1:26.4 three-quarters enroute to a commanding four length win timed in 1:55.4. The mile was a lifetime best for the son of Laag who is trained by Wayne Bloomfield and owned by Donald Johnstone of London. It was his fourth win in 11 season starts.

Arrive At Five from the Gord Roselle stable was second and Steady Copilot finished third.

The second division saw Eicarls El Diablo from Joe Stutzman's barn pace a career best 1:55.1 wire to wire victory for driver Doug Brown over Befriender and Shrewd.

The win was the Nihilator colt's third in four starts for owner Carl Gregg of Pittsburgh who shipped the horse from his Meadow's trainer Steve LeBlanc to Stutzman's stable for the Youthful.

Bill Robinson's Bunny's First who won divisions of the first and second leg of the Youthful left from post eight, remained near the back of the pack and closed to be fifth.

Make A Face, guaranteed a spot in the final after wins in the first and second leg took the week off.

The finalists for next Saturday's $32,400 Youthful Final are: Bunny's First, Eicarls El Diablo, Arrive At Five, Make A Face, Laagical Move,

Bill Robinson's ace trotter Program Speed, a four year old son of Super Bowl returned to the racing scene after a five week layoff. Driven by Bill Gale, Program Speed made his 1:59.2 victory in Sunday afternoon's $25,000 Free For All Trot look like a stroll in the park as he cruised to a three and a half length win over runner-up About A Dream, Impeccable Image and Charlie Ten Hitch who were third in a dead heat.

Mohawk will host the second annual Drivers' Charity Challenge on Sunday, April 18 with eight of the world's best harness drivers competing for charity.

Joining OJC regulars, Doug Brown, Steve Condren, Mike Saftic, and Paul MacDonell will be hall of famer Ron Waples Sr., defending challenge champion, Mike Lachance, Ron Pierce and Catello Manzi.

Each of the drivers will be matched with a children's charity. The challenge involves six races and each driver will earn points based on where he finishes in each race. The driver who finishes the challenge with the most points will have $5,000 donated in his name to the charity that he's teamed up with; the runner-up driver will have $3,000 donated in his name and the third place finisher will have $2,000 donated to his charity. All remaining charities will receive $500.

Fans will be able to participate in the Drivers' Charity Challenge by voting for the driver they feel will be the winner.

At the completion of the event, a draw will be made from the fans who voted for the Challenge winner for a trip for two to the Meadowlands Pace.

Fans will be able to have their photograph (or obtain an autograph) taken with their favorite Challenge driver from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Millionaire trotter No Sex Please will be on display (in the grandstand) at Mohawk on Challenge night from 6-8 p.m. According to trainer-owner Ron Waples Jr., he hopes to have "Sexy" back to the races by the end of April or early May.

In The Winner's Circle -

Staying Together extended his win streak to five with a world record (for a half mile track) 1:52.4 victory in the $75,000 Graduate at Freehold Raceway on Saturday afternoon for driver John Campbell... Leading OJC driver Doug Brown was hot on Easter Sunday, teaming up with four winners - Miami Blues, Armbr Income, Eicarls El Diablo and Gallant Man... Trainer Bill Robinson's Silver Almahurst scored a 1:53 victory in the $50,000 Levy at Yonkers on Saturday night. Silver is co-owned by Hall of Famer Keith Waples.

Your Week Ahead Horoscope

ARIES
Mar. 21-Apr. 19

Let the good times roll! Look for an upswing in your social life. Dark days are in the past; now it's time to shine.

TAURUS
Apr. 20-May 20

A sacrifice at work may be needed in order to finish special project. Disparity between co-workers intensifies.

GEMINI
May 21-June 20

Loyalty to your family should take precedence over a minor friendship. You may be forced to choose sides.

CANCER
June 21-July 22

Reorganization is the key. At home or at work, cleaning up your messes will only make you more efficient.

LEO
July 23-Aug. 22

In order to become more influential, you may have to return to an academic curriculum. Intellectual pursuits suit you.

VIRGO
Aug. 23-Sept. 22

Take care not to step on any toes. You need to fine-tune your diplomatic efforts if you want to keep the peace.

LIBRA
Sept. 23-Oct. 22

If your career is not going in the right direction, step back and observe it from a distance. You may be better off than you think.

SCORPIO
Oct. 23-Nov. 21

Romantic interlude will not allow you much free time. Look for sleepless nights and long days ahead. Is it worth it?

SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22-Dec. 21

Finances should be a priority. To improve the bottom line, you will have to cut some corners (but not too sharply!)

CAPRICORN
Dec. 22-Jan. 19

Therapy may be needed to dispose of unwanted feelings. Try talking to someone you trust, first; it could help.

AQUARIUS
Jan. 20-Feb. 18

Forever is a long time. Changes will occur for which you are unprepared, so be careful what you promise.

PISCES
Feb. 19-Mar. 20

It will take a drastic change in your lifestyle to achieve the tranquility you crave. Are you willing to chance it?
