CO-OP EDUCATION

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO THE EMPLOYER?

- * A chance to be part of our present education system
- * Only cost to employer is the time required to train student
- * Students give at least 20 hours per week to programme for the four month term.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO THE STUDENTS?

- * Classroom instruction on resumes and job interviews
- * A chance to practice new skills in a work environment
- * A chance to experience what is involved in various professions before making a career choice
- * After a minimum of 220 hours of Co-op placement and completion of classroom assignments student receives two course credits

This information page about Co-operative Education is brought to you by local business people who have participated in this worthwhile programme. Each of the businesses listed here have accepted students from Georgetown District High School or Acton District High School.

INDEPENDENT FREE PRESS

During the 92/93 school term three students from Georgetown High School were placed in various departments within our newspaper. Our thanks goes to Brenda Snow, Kevin Spears and Jerry Saunders. Good Luck to each of you in your selected careers.
