Venturers compete in annual triathlon

The annual triathlon for Venturers - Scouts Canada was held May 1 weekend.

Starting at Inglewood 31 canoes and one kayak came down the Credit to the Glen Williams bridge. Next they rode their bikes along the town line, north on the Eighth Line, west on Regional Road 43 on out to Camp Blue Heron on the Sixth Line west of Acton. The run of six and a half kilometres took place on the Scout property and the Sixth Line.

Chairman of the event, Venturer Chris DiGenova, along with all his committees had excellent weather for the triathlon. Rover David Young of 2nd Georgetown brought in a disc jockey for the dance Saturday evening with 180 attending. Chris DiGenova is Regional Round Table advisor and reported Venturers from Central Escarpment Region and as far away as Windsor, London, Ancaster.

Scouters from Georgetown helping at the starting point were John and Barb Rothwell and timers at the Glen Williams bridge were Elaine Hannah and Evelyn Owen.

Water safety was handled by Burlington and Oakville District Scouters. Road safety was handled by Milton and Burlington District Scouters.

On a short notice 14 members of the Halton Amateur Radio Club helped at Camp Blue Heron, and the committee extends a vote of thanks to them, and also to Halton Regional Police.

A paddle was presented to Venturer Lori Parkhill of Acton for her time coming down the Credit.

Champions crowned

As expected Hustlers and Dream Team are the playoffs winners in the first and second divisions of the Industrial League. The teams are double winners, having already won the league championship. The season comes to an end with this past week's results and next season is to be the goal for all teams and players, new and old alike.

The challengers could not maintain their thrust towards the front runners in the end and the Hustlers and Dream Team were worthy champions and shall pit strength against strength next season, a challenge well worth waiting for by the combatants and spectators.

Steeprock came through the pack with huge wins over Inter County and High Rollers to take second place with Westenders third and Gasketman ended up in fourth place.
