

Ena Gibson retires from teaching

Longtime Acton area teacher, Ena Gibson, was honored by colleagues, parents and former students recently at a celebration held in her honor at McKenzie Smith Middle School. Ena has taught in both Robert Little and McKenzie Smith schools during the past 27 years, and was delighted as co-worker Ed Leatherland (above) presented her with a watercolor painted by former McKenzie Smith teacher Bob Pinkerton. At right, Ena was pleased as her daughter, Pat Hirlehey jokingly presented her with a late assignment she hadn't turned when she had her mother as her grade eight teacher.

TED BROWN Independent/Free Press

It certainly was too cold to have a picnic so we all stayed put indoors. Over a small glass of wine, 12 ladies gathered for the last meeting of the summer. As always food was in plenty supply and we certainly all enjoyed it. Our meeting that followed opened as usual with the flag salute and prayer of the Order. A few things will be tied up till September when we meet again.

Our garage and bake sale was a success and we do thank those who supported us as well as Mary McKenzie for hard work. The things that weren't sold were given to the band for their sale.

Several of our members have been ill and we wish them a speedy recovery.

As an IODE group we have been invited to the opening of the Allendale House at the Manor.

Mary McKenzie will present plaques at schools for commencement exercises. She has talked to our classroom in Makovick and finds they received our parcel sent to them for Easter.

Our ladies were at the cemetery, June 6 placing geraniums on the graves of our members. Thank you ladies for your help.

Come join our group on Sept. 7 as we start our fall program.
