

Volunteers needed

The Georgetown office of North Halton Volunteer Centre has several opportunities for people interested in gardening, recreation/special events and committee work. Inquiries can be made by calling (416) 877-3219 between 9 a.m. and 3p.m.

Some of the volunteer needs in your community this month are:

Georgetown Parent and Child Centre — The centre is in need of a financial consultant who is familiar with the ACPAC and Simply computer programs. Please give Gail Cartwright a call at (416) 873-2960.

North Halton Association for the Developmentally Handicapped — Support workers are needed to assist association members with outside lawn and garden activities. If you enjoy making new friends call Chris Andrusyshyn at 878-3369.

Canadian Red Cross - Georgetown branch — A vice president and first aid chairperson are needed to direct services and respond to the community's health care concerns. Training, donor clinics and medical transportation are some of the benefits provided by our local Red Cross. Call Bernice Gibbs at 877-5233.

North Halton Citizens Cultural Awareness Committee — This newly formed group promotes cultural and ethnic education and tolerance. Committee members are needed to organize and develop programs for fundraising and education. Give Lucinda Landau a call at 873-0459 to encourage multiculturalism.

Halton Hills Recreation and Parks — Summer volunteers are needed for children's day camp trips to out-of-town activities. This is an ideal opportunity for single parents or students looking for summer events to participate in. To arrange an interview call Kelly Pickett at 873-2600, ext. 270.

Meals-on-Wheels — Volunteer drivers are needed to transport meals from Milton to Georgetown for distribution to local seniors. This is a two hour a day opportunity for a person that enjoys driving and helping their neighbors. Call Liz Hardstaff at (416) 873-1378.

A UNIQUE INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

Recently, I have had many enquires from investors about a unique investment opportunity. The investment is called "Working Ventures Canadian Fund". This is how it works. New income tax legislation provides two 20% tax credits for investment in labour sponsored investment funds. Working Ventures Canadian Fund is Canada's first national labour sponsored investment fund, sponsored by the Canadian Federation of Labour.

Investors in working ventures can receive a 20% federal tax credit a 20% provincial tax credit and if purchased in a self directed RRSP they will also receive their normal RRSP tax deduction, maximum eligible investment in any one year is $5,000.

Your investment in working ventures will primarily be reinvested in promising growth-oriented businesses in your province. It is the small and medium-size business sector of the economy that has historically created the majority of Canada's new investment opportunities.

While saving taxes and contributing to economic growth are important, it is essential that your investment performs. Working Ventures objective is to produce the superior returns traditionally associated with investment in dynamic and growing businesses, while minimizing risk through prudent development and management of the fund.

Further information on Working Ventures Canadian Fund including a prospectus may be obtained by contacting the author.
