Streetsville splits with local squads

Halton Hills teams ended the month of May by hosting a strong Streetsville/Meadowvale team, in girls under -17 soccer action.

Halton Hills Blue team met the visitors on May 25 and although the home side put on a valiant effort they fell behind 4-1 by half time. Streetsville/Meadowvale went on to win the match 5-2. Both goals for the Halton Hills Blue team were scored by centre Jen Goy.

A confident Streetsville team was back on May 27 to play Halton Hills Green team and despite a strong first half were unable to score. Paula Hardy provided the home side with a goal by half time and Kate Blyth added to the lead by scoring in the second half.

Streetsville/Meadowvale continued to press the home side and finally came within one on a late goal, however they were unable to get the equalizer despite many opportunities. Halton Hills Green went on to post a well deserved 2-1 victory. On June 1, Halton Hills Red team hosted Brampton B team at Cedarvale. The home side took an early two goal lead but were unable to hold on as Brampton B came back to tie the game with two goals of their own in the second half. Halton Hills Blue and Green teams faced each other also on June 1 at Acton High School field. Green jumped to a 4-2 lead in the first half and added two more in the second half to post a 6-2 victory. A total team effort by Green with goals by Kate Blyth, Paula Hardy, Sarah Packer, Sarah Antonini, Megan Kenzie and Marci Roy. Marking for the Blue team was Jen Goy with two goals.

Dairy Queen edges opposition

Dairy Queen has proven tough to beat in early Kinsmen Girls softball, intermediate division, action.

Dairy Queen started the week by dowing the Optimists 24-18.

Pitchers Jodi Hutzal, Marie White and Heather Pollock each had two strikeouts for Dairy Queen. Janet Fairs was a big gun offensively for the Optimist club, going three for three at the plate.

Halton Rapid Print edged the Elks Lodge 14-8, with a seven run second inning for the printers helping knock-off the Elks. Going two for two at the plate for the printers was Alicia Riepma, Christine Monckton, Lindsay Oliver and Adrienne Lambert.

Alison Robitaille went two for two for the Lodgers. Game star honors went to Candice Shipley for HRP and Rebecca Ferri for EL.

Knechtels was no match for

Dairy Queen as the DQ crew took a 26-2 win.

Knechtels couldn't get the bats going in this contest. Scoring the two runs for Knechtels was Melissa Krause. Erin Lindsay made the defensive play of the game. Home run power was supplied by Cheryl Mastalerz 2, Marie White and Jill Martin. Leah Cosgrove bothered by a pulled leg muscle supplied four RBIs. Game stars were Cheryl Mastalerz (DQ) and Erin Lindsay (Knechtels).

The Optimists rebounded from their loss to Dairy Queen to score a 30-17 win over Pictures and Presents. Pictures and Presents were slow out of the box, down 18-3 after three innings, P and P attempted a come back scoring six in the fourth and five in the fifth but it was too little too late. No game stars were reported.
