Acton bowlers honor top shooters of season

By JERRY SAUNDERS

Special to the Independent/Free Press

The Acton Five Pin Bowlers Association held their first annual bowling bash, during which several awards were presented to the years outstanding bowlers.

Cee Jays Bowling winners were first on the list when Dee DeForest captured the Hi Average trophy for the men with an impressive 239 average, while Julie Heatly averaged 222 to lead the women. Men's Hi Tripie was awarded to Steve Sheppard, and Fran Burton was tops among the women. Hi Single was then presented to Blake Smith for the men, and Cathie Ahean for the ladies. Staying on a Hi note, Al Stokes and Louise Reid were victorious in the Hi Triple with Handicap category, all the while Tim Atkinson and Carolyn Luff were tops in Hi Single with Handicap.

The league champs in the Cee Jays Bowling league was 3 Men & A Lady, which consists of Steve Sheppard, Fran Burton, Roger Roach, and Jamie Mitchell. Although they won the league title, it was the team of the Misfits capturing the Playoff title. Team members include Dee DeForest, Shirley Corkum, Emmy Fryters, Bev Bremner, and Blake Smith.

In the Low Scores category it was Jules Fryters with an 86 and Bev Bremner with an 85 who won this inconspicuous honor.

The Tuesday Night Ladies were next on the agenda with Teresa Uiterwyk, Sue Walton, and Angie Mowat winning the Hi average, triple, and single.

The Unpredictables won the league title with such bowlers as Teresa Uiterwyk, Donna Manes, Robin Fendky, Georgina Cripps, Angie Mowat, and Manice Clarke. The playoff championship was won by the Bowling Stones, which consists of Lucy Synnot, Anna Olsen, Pat Hatch, Connie Bath, Grace Lucas, and Zora Banjac.

The most improved bowler on the circuit was Frances Hogenbirk.

The Men's Industrial Commercial League competed for bragging rights with Arnie Devaan, John Wagg, and Dave Manes the top bowlers as far as Hi's go with the top average, triple and single respectively. The league champs were Mickey's Wooden Shoe's, a team consisting of Arnie Devaan, Mike Milligan, Jake Kuiken, Jim Rowsell, Ron Kuiken, and Keith Green.

In the second portion of the split season saw Arnie Devaan again capture the Hi Average award, with Terry Curlew and Steve Kruit following with the Hi triple and Hi single. The Bowling Stones won the league title with such members as Kevin Archibald, Gord Williams, Gord Stokes, Ron Kuiken, Steve Drut, and Gary Lumbers.

From there it was the Acton Mixed league which stole the spotlight as Linda and John Wagg captured the Hi average award for the ladies and the men. Jan Storey and George Longstreet were recipients of the Hi triple award and Marion Storey shared honors with Shorty Lowin for the Hi single award. Hi triple with handicap went to Pat Giguere and Gord Corcoran while Peggy Harris and Ross Smart were tops in the Hi single with handicap.

Brent Dance, Doug Williams, Delia Kentner, Peggy Harris, Marion Storey, and Roberta Thompson combined to win the league championship while the team called Almost Awesome consisting of John Wagg, Robin Williams, Paul Leblanc, Doug MacPherson, and Jan Storey won the playoff title.

Delia Kentner won the honor of being the most improved bowler.

The Friday Night league was then presented their awards, and Julie Heatley, Eileen Lott, and Cindy Lott won the ladies awards for Hi average, triple, and single. On the mens side it was Don Smith, Keith Green, and Blake Smith stealing the honors.
