655 In memoriams

HACHEY, Alfred.

It doesn't get any easier Dad
Each occasion that draws near
We face without you, but still we know
You're with us for each falling tear.
Tears seem to fall freely now
As we deal with losing you
Is it supposed to be this way?
Is this what you'd expect us to do?
It doesn't get any easier Dad
As we are approaching your day.
No ties to buy, or cream aftershave
Or a gag gift from Ken on its way.
This will be a tough one Dad
When we see your memorial in place,
We will gather still to honor you
And pray God keeps you in His grace.
And as we cry on Father's Day
You will join us in heart
And you will know that with our love
There's nothing that can keep us apart.
Michael is so much bigger now
He laughs and smiles and screams
He would have been Poppa's new favorite
Far and beyond your dreams.
As we prepare for another babe
A deep sense of loss is there
No one will know how badly
I wanted you here, Dad, to share.
I know you and God are blessing my baby
Watching over us all when we're sad.
We know just what you'd say at certain times
How you'd laugh, or how you'd be mad.
And though it doesn't get any easier Dad
We will carry on. Proud to be your children,
Proud to carry on your name,
And especially proud of you.
Happy Father's Day Dad, we miss you so much.
Love, Jo-Ann, Jim, Ron, Ken & Debbie, Sue & Andre, Alan & Robin, and all the grandchildren, and of course, love Mom.

MURPHY, Margaret - In loving memory of a dear wife and mother who passed away on June 21, 1988. Time speeds on, 5 years have passed Since death its gloom, its shadow cast Within our home where all seemed bright, And took from us a shining light. We miss that light, and ever will, Her vacant place there's none to fill. Down here we mourn, but not in vain, For up in Heaven we will meet again. Forever in our hearts,
Love, Dad, Alice, Jim, Paul, Roz, Andy, Sylvia and families.
