

Admission free on Canada Day at Agricultural Museum

To celebrate Canada's birthday the Ontario Agricultural Museum is offering free admission on Thursday, July 1.

Canada Day Celebrations will bring alive the museum's 80-acre site with events for the entire family. Games and activities, crafts and music will keep everyone entertained.

An exciting new addition to Canada Day Celebrations this year is a display of vintage cars.

The museum's costumed interpreters, farm animals, colorful gardens, and wagon rides will make your day in the country a memorable one.

Pack a picnic or enjoy a meal in our country style restaurant, but leave room to indulge in fresh strawberries during the afternoon's traditional strawberry social.

The Ontario Agricultural

Museum is a living history site which depicts the evolution of Ontario agriculture and rural life. While celebrating Canada Day, explore the site's 32-hectares (80 acres) including over 30 buildings, displays and exhibits.

It's open daily, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
