Eagles fall in Collingwood

The Georgetown Minor Peewee Eagles, sponsored by Cliff Norton Contracting, participated in the Major Peewee Tournament in Collingwood.

The first game was against the very large boys from Erin Mills. Although the score was 19-0, Randy Hodder pitched a great game.

In the second game the Georgetown Eagles won 10-4 against the Walkerton minor peewee team. Paul DiMarco hit double and Kevin Becker hit a single for an RBI and Brent McClung also hit a single.

In the bottom on the first Paul DiMarco, catching, caught a foul ball for an out.

In the top of the third Ryan Bobar hit a triple and was brought home by Bart Balanowski with a single. In the bottom of third it was 3 up and 3 down. Ryan Canning with some patience at the plate got a walk, Paul DiMarco advanced Ryan Canning to third with a single with a double hit. Ryan Canning got robbed stealing third. Paul DiMarco stole home successfully. Kevin Becker got a walk and Brent McClung advanced his teammate Kevin Becker to third with a single.

In the top of the fourth Bart Balanowski took a walk and Sean Muscat advanced the runner to second. Ryan Canning laid his infamous bunt to bring in Bart Balanowski. Paul DiMarco stepped up to the plate hit a double and was brought home by another double by Kevin Becker.

In the top of the fourth the Georgetown Eagles played excellent defensive ball and had 3 up and 3 down.

The top of fifth had Ryan Bobar took a walk, and stole home. Bottom of the fifth Paul DiMarco made an excellent catch out in left field. Chad Miersma made an excellent catch and throw to Brent McClung to get runner out coming home for a double play.

Sean Muscat took a walk in the sixth and Ryan Canning got a single, and Paul DiMarco stepped up to the for not only a double but 2 RBI's and then proceeded to steal home. Kevin Becker took a walk and Randy Hodder got a single with 2 RBI's.

In the sixth and last inning of a terrific game Randy Hodder caught a pop up at third base and Chad Miersma made a great pick-up and throw to first baseman Ryan Bobar. Winning pitcher was Brent McClung.

The team and coaches of the Georgetown Eagles would like to thank Aaron Miersma for doing an excellent job as their bat boy.

The third game was against Barrie. Some great plays and hits by Georgetown, but it was not to be.

Coach Al Arnold stated Tournaments seem to bring boys together as a team and this was no exception. He also thanked Simon Saulnier and Bart Balanowski from the Georgetown Major Mosquito Eagles for their contribution.
