The under-17 Halton Hornets Select Girls soccer team travelled to Grimsby July 24 and 25t, for their first tournament of the season.

In their first game on Saturday the Hornets faced an aggressive Scarborough United team. Scarborough United scored first but the Hornets came back to tie it up prior to half time on a goal by Marci Roy. Scarborough's more aggressive play gave them the edge in the second half as they put 2 more goals in the net to win 3-1.

An hour later the Hornets met London for their second game, London players playing their first game of the tournament were caught off guard by the Hornets early in the game and quickly fell behind by 2 goals scored by Marci Roy and Jen Goy.

However, London did manage to get one back by half time. Despite London's efforts in the second half to intimidate the Hornets with their very physical play, the Hornets managed to hang on for a well deserved 2-1 win.

The third game against Brams United resulted in a 2-2 tie. Scoring for the Hornets were Jen Goy and Jill McMenemy. This win propelled the Hornets on to the semi-finals on Sunday where they again had to face Brams United.

This game was to determine which team would advance to the championship cup game later in the day. This was a well played match with Brampton coming out and scoring early. The Hornets replied with a goal of their own scored by Danielle Cary and then went ahead with another goal by Marci Roy. Brampton managed to tie the game again but Hornets striker Marci Roy put an excellent run up the field and crossed the ball over to Jen Goy who put the ball in the net and the game out of reach with a final win of 3-2.

The final game for the championship cup laced the Halton Hornets up against their first opponent of the tournament, Scarborough United.

Scarborough came out and scored quickly. The Hornets fought off a very aggressive Scarborough team well into the second half of the game and despite creating numerous scoring opportunities of their own the Hornets were unable to find the net. Scarborough scored another goal late in the second half to secure a 2-0 win.

The following players deserve recognition for their outstanding performances and well earned second place finish; Kate Blyth, Danielle Castiglione, Joy Walraven, Angela Orticeilo, Courtney O'Brien, Tracey Andrews, Cheryl Jenkins and Carla Jenkins, Danielle Cary, Marci Roy, Louise Hatton, Jen Goy, Jill McMenemy, Danay Guignard and Christine Hohendorf.

Special mention to both Danay Guignard and Christine Hohendorf who provided solid netminding for Hornets on Saturday and Sunday.

Select squad drops pair

The Halton Hills Hornets under 11 girls Select team played their first out-of-town tournament in Brampton last weekend.

While winning only one out of three games, the low scores indicate potential for other summer tournaments, as Halton Hills played with only two substitutes.

The first game against Scarborough started slowly as the Hornets settled into their positions. In the second half, mid-fielders Sharilyn Kogan and Julie Thompson and defense Stephanie Fielding started to get the ball to the forwards. Halton Hills held the Scarborough in the first half from penalty kicks.

The second game was a winner for the Hornets at 1-0 against Bolton. Hornet forwards dominated and kept play on the Bolton half so that there were no shots on the Halton Hills goalie Alyssa Taylor. Laura Shields, Kathryn Weston, and Krystal Westman played close to Bolton net and Danielle King scored the goal.

In their final game, celebrating Amanda Burgan's birthday, the locals played a strong Streetsville team. Defense players Mary Krasnay, Meighan McIntyre, Melanie Sherren and Melissa Maveal worked hard to keep ahead of the Streetsville forwards. The final score was 3-0 for Streetsville.
